BULLETIN.

Dayton, March 27, 2:10 a. m.—The fire in the business section was still burning fiercely this morning. It seems to have changed the general direction from northeast to straight west. Efforts to ascertain if buildings housing refugees have been burned were unavailing. It is impossible to approach closer than a mile of the blaze.

BULLETIN.

Cincinnati, O., March 27.—The Cincinnati, Lebanon & Northern Railroad company has just announced that it is making up a special train to leave for Dayton at 3 o'clock this morning, carrying 540 coffins. The order came from Dayton officials to a local company and was rushed through.

Columbus, O., March 26.—Ohio is experiencing the worst flood in its history. Many estimate that the damage to property is the greatest since Galveston, Texas was literally swept from the map.

Gathering darkness tonight brought no relief to the scores of cities and towns of the state that are inundated and cut off from the outside world, but instead cast a gloom over the rushing waters, practically thwarted rescue work and increased the horrors of the situation. Thousands of persons are imprisoned by the swollen waters. Although the water in some places is reported to be slowly receding, there was no immediate relief in sight tonight, while rain continued.

Report Seemingly Exaggerated. So appalling and seemingly exaggerated were many of the reports from flooded cities and towns today that they were disbelieved and in many instances wholly disregarded. Later reports from these same sections, however, many times confirmed what seemed to be wild rumors. Although reports of distress and disaster are coming in from every section of the state the greatest damage and loss of life, from all reports is at Dayton. The conditions there beggar description. While the business section of the city is practically all under water and the estimated loss of life is appalling, fires are adding to the horror and increasing the death toll.

Loss of life is estimated at from hundreds to thousands. Handicapped efforts at rescue work today failed to clarify the puzzling situation regarding loss of life from the flood in Columbus. How many are dead there is not known. Many who are considered conservative place the loss at from 100 to 150.

Delaware Details Unavailable. At Delaware, 5 miles north of Columbus the inhabitants are still flood-bound and details are unavailable. The known dead already number 33 according to a correspondent who is on the scene. From Sidney committee the report that from 100 to 500 have been drowned. Governor Cox said that he had information that there was no loss of life in Sidney. Tiffin reported at least fifty lives lost.

Stratford, a town near Delaware, according to an unconfirmed report from a farmer who swept Delaware today was literally reaped from the map and one hundred drowned. According to a wireless report received at the Ohio state university here this afternoon from Mount Vernon, that town was hit hard by the flood and probably one hundred have lost their lives. This report could not be verified tonight.

Meagre reports from Hamilton in the Miami valley are that the situation is serious and that a half dozen or more lives were lost. Confirmation is lacking.

Eastern Ohio Situation Serious. Reports from the eastern part of the state indicate that the situation there is serious and may result in a heavy death toll. Zanesville on the swollen Muskingum river, according to reports tonight, was largely under water.

All points below Zanesville extending east to the Ohio river were cut off from the outside world tonight.

Last available information from these places was that they were partially or wholly submerged. Marietta and McConnellsville were reported to be under several feet of water.

The Muskingum river was reported to be more than ten feet higher than ever before.

Chillicothe, Circleville, Portsmouth, Ironton and all points in the Miami valley south are cut off from communication tonight and all are either partially or almost wholly under water according to the last reports available today. At Chillicothe the telephone and telegraph offices were flooded early today and all communication cut off. Reports from Akron late today were that at least 500 families were homeless and that there undoubtedly would be fatalities. Massillon, New Philadelphia, Marion and Lima also were reported to be partially inundated and were wholly cut off from communication.

Dayton, March 26.—11:30 p. m.—That a fierce fire which appeared to be sweeping through the half-submerged business district of Dayton late tonight, had destroyed the Beckel house, where there were supposed to be more than two hundred flood refugees, was the consensus of opinion of scores of watchers atop the National Cash Register building nearly two miles from the scene of the flames.

Investigation of the fire at close range was an utter impossibility. More than a mile of flood water intervened between the point where staunchest boats dared to venture and the area of flames. Traced by aid of maps it appeared that the Beckel house was destroyed at some time after 10 o'clock. Whether the scores of refugees supposed to have been there tried to escape was only a matter of conjecture.

At midnight residents of Dayton watching the course of the flames from across the wide stretch of flood waters believed the fire got its new start this afternoon in the store of the Patterson Tool and Supply company on Third street just east of Jefferson, whence it ate its way west, apparently aided by escaping gas and exploding chemicals in two wholesale drug establishments. The city has been placed under martial law.

A telephone operator at Lineman, O., said that the Lewistown reservoir would not hold until daylight. Lineman is twelve miles from Lewistown and is the nearest point in wire communication thereto. Lewistown is seventy miles north of here. It is said that if the dam breaks a worse flood than already has come will result.

Soon after midnight it appeared the flames were wavering. While many persons conversant with the district and who watched from a distance, did not agree upon the possibility that the Beckel house had succumbed to the fire, yet all watchers expressed fear that many of the marooned had perished in the flames that appeared to have worked from east to west, a distance of nearly two blocks.

Guardman Shoots Looters. Dayton, O., March 27.—At 1:15 a. m. state guardman shot and instantly killed a man attempting to loot the homes of flood victims on Fifth street.

DAYTON, O., MARCH 26.—Flames that destroyed eight buildings in Dayton's submerged business section tonight cast a red, weird glow over the flood-stricken city that added to the fears of thousands of refugees and marooned persons and led to apprehension that there may have been many of the water's prisoners in burned buildings.

Soon afterward notice was posted in headquarters of the emergency committee announcing that "the city was under martial law," and several companies of soldiers arrived from neighboring Ohio cities. The soldiers were employed to patrol edges of the burned district and prevent further looting of homes. Up to a late hour tonight there had been no material disorder.

Rescuers Work Frantically. Rescue squads worked frantically today to throw back the veil that hides the true story of the Dayton disaster—the number of dead. Late tonight the arrival of motor boats gave hope that by tomorrow the northern section of the city now cut off by the Big Miami's impassable barrier may be penetrated, and that then may be learned the fate of hundreds imprisoned by the torrent that poured down from the broken reservoir. The list of six dead was added to this afternoon by the death of a refugee. It was reported late tonight that a number of dead had been found in houses at Fifth and Eagle streets but when rescuers worked their way into the partially submerged dwellings they found a number of the flood prisoners who were weak from fright and hunger but still alive.

Survivors Suffer From Rain. Already over-burdened victims of the waters' wrath were compelled to suffer again today in a cold, smarting rain.

It was impossible to ascertain the number of persons who might have been marooned in this section and who died after being trapped by flood and fire.

Nevertheless rescue work went steadily on and about 3,000 persons were housed in places of refuge tonight—the majority of them in buildings of the National Cash Register company. At least 65,000 persons are imprisoned in homes and in business buildings. It is feared their two days' imprisonment with accompanying hunger and fright have caused tremendous suffering. The flood came with such suddenness that food supplies in homes were whisked away by the torrent that reached to second floors almost in the flash of an eye. Skiffs skirted the edge of the flooded district attempting to take food to the sufferers but the fierce current retarded this work. Dayton was practically cut off from wire communication until this afternoon. Then two wires to Cincinnati were obtained and operators plunged into great piles of telegrams from Dayton citizens, almost frantic in their desire to assure friends outside of their safety.

Water Fifteen Feet Deep. Two oarsmen who braved the current that swirled through the business section of the city reported today that the water at the Algonquin hotel was fifteen feet deep. From windows in the hotels and business buildings, hundreds of the marooned begged piteously for rescue and food.

Oarsmen who worked into outskirts of the business section tonight reported that 250 persons marooned in the Arcade building and two hundred imprisoned in the Y. M. C. A. building were begging for water. A shortage of provisions was threatened this afternoon. Every grocer in the city had been "sold out" before noon. With the arrival of motor boats tonight it was hoped to begin to distribute provisions among the marooned soon after daylight. A report that a dam above Dayton threatened to break added to Dayton's terror tonight. If the dam breaks it will pour a flood that will hold up rescue work for days.

Dayton Death Toll Unknown. How great a death toll the deluge of Dayton had taken seemed tonight almost as much a matter of conjecture as yesterday, but according to stories brought by survivors from the stricken districts the emergency committee ordered five hundred coffins for immediately delivery.

The great Miami river, swollen to a width heretofore unknown and running with a terrific current, battered the way to specific information to the number of dead. While thousands of persons were still marooned on houses and on opportune roofs in the central portions of the town only a few corpses had been recovered and it was believed that the northern section of the submerged city, to which rescuing parties had been unable to penetrate would be found the greatest life loss.

At six o'clock this evening, J. H. Miller, secretary of the board of health, estimated that the death list would reach 800.

Current Retards Rescue Work. While the flood steadily receded this afternoon, the terrific current retarded rescue work and a cold smarting rain added to discomforts of the already overburdened storm victims. Expert oarsmen who braved the tide in the business section of the submerged city this afternoon came back nerve-wrecked to relate narratives of pitiable appeals made to them by hundreds marooned in upper floors of tall buildings about whose lower stories swirled a flood that threatened the structures foundations. The dark colors in the narrative were lightened here and there by stories of bravery exhibited by many of the flood prisoners.

A woman with three children maroomed in the upper floor of her home on the edge of the business district called to the oarsmen:

"Oh, I know you can't get me off," she cried, "but for the love of humanity, please take this loaf of bread and a jug of molasses to Sarah Prun down the street, I know she is starving."

Twice the boatmen attempted to take the food but waves that eddied about the submerged house hurled them back.

Offer Fabulous Sums For Rescue.

Further on in exclusive residence districts they were offered fabulous sums by many of the flood's prisoners. Their narrative inspired an effort late this afternoon to launch a boat for navigation on the vast river but up to a late hour the craft had been unable to pass beyond areas already reached on the fringe of the flooded district.

Rescue work efficiently managed and in which John H. Patterson, president of the National Cash Register company was a leading spirit proceeded smoothly throughout the day. Missing members of families were restored to their loved ones through human clearing houses established at several points. Great edgiers, filled with names, and presided over by volunteer band clerks, were at the disposal of persons seeking missing kinsmen.

If these had registered in the clearing house their addresses were quickly given to the inquirers.

Up to seven o'clock this evening 3,000 of the homeless were housed in different places of refuge most of them being cared for at the plant of the National Cash Register company. Scores of the water's victims were being carried from their places of imprisonment late this evening and leaders of the rescuing parties were arranging for relays of torch bearers to light the work during the night.

Reports that St. Elizabeth hospital had been swept away, which were current last night, were proven erroneous today. The hospital could not be reached today but could be seen standing through field glasses. It is thought the water did not rise above the first story and that patients playing No Motor Boats.

"Our greatest need is a dozen motor boats and men to run them," a sentence in an appeal sent out by J. H. Patterson chairman of the relief committee, gives a good insight into the flood situation. Skiffs and rowboats cannot live in torrents rushing through the city's principal streets.

As persons are rescued they are taken to one of the several sub-relief stations where their names are recorded and they receive first aid. At frequent intervals these lists were sent to relief headquarters and announced to crowds who waited in te rain for hours.

Dawn came with a cold wind that became more penetrating before noon when rain began to fall and continued throughout the day.

Two expert oarsmen Fred Patterson and Nelson Talbot conquered the current for a short distance on Main street late this afternoon. At the intersection of Main and Third streets the city's principal corner, they said they saw automobiles, houses and many small structures drift swiftly down between imposing office buildings.

"Everywhere people yelled to us to rescue them," said Patterson, but it was impossible for us to be barely able to keep afloat. Large sums of money were offered us to take persons from perilous positions. We did not see any bodies but the loss of life must have been great."

It is feared the life loss on the north side of the great Miami river will be large. Slowly rising a verflow water stood seven feet deep in a great section of the city lying across that river when the rush from the break in the Laramie reservoir came.

Probably none of the refugees will suffer for lack of food. Estimate Columbus Dead at 150. Columbus, O., March 26.—With no change in the number of reported dead in this city, estimates placing the probable dead at from 100 to 150, Columbus was still being wrenched and wrung tonight by the flood waters of the Scioto and Olentangy rivers. The scene of devastation in west side was partially made visible today to residents of other sections of the city for the first time in two days. This afternoon the isolation of the western section again became real when the last remaining bridge gave way before the torrents.

Fourteen Bodies Recovered. Delaware, O., March 26.—The bodies of fourteen persons have been recovered and as many more are missing from their wrecked homes here tonight, is the result of the overflow of the Olentangy river, which officials estimate has done damage to the city estimated at $2,000,000.

The known dead are: Frank Melching. Mrs. Frank Melching. Their sons, Ralph aged 6, and Lewis aged 4. Mrs. Silas Smith and her two sons, aged 7 and 8 and daughter aged 1. Miss Esther Jones, aged 15. Miss Hazel Dunlap, aged 22. Mrs. Slosson. William Hessey. William Hedding. James Maine, aged 60.

Mayor Rescued From Telephone Pole. Mayor Bleese was rescued to day from the top of a telephone pole to which he had climbed to rescue others. Tonight Delaware is in great need of bread and gasoline with which to cook.

The village of Stratford five miles south has been wiped out and the total population of 100 have been drowned. It is reported here but this statement cannot be confirmed. Fifty are dead at Tiffin it is also reported and the village of Prospect, ten miles to the north is under water.

Company K of the Fourth Regiment

O. N. G., was in charge of the city to day with orders to shoot those not authorized who attempted to go into flood district.

Fifty homes have been washed and 500 are homeless. The students of Ohio Wesleyan University organized volunteer rescue troops and worked unceasingly. All bridges across the river have been washed away and only the most daring attempt to communicate with those across the river by crawling on a wire and cable.

Small Relief At Hamilton.

Hamilton, O., March 26.—Small relief came to this city today despite the fact that several carloads of provisions were dumped almost within seeing distance of the thousands of refugees that are marooned in the upper floors of the houses in the business district. The swift current swirling through the major part of the town preventing anything like work in supplying food and when darkness made the work almost impossible tonight, probably one-fourth of the marooned ones still were on the hungry list.

Fires have caused large property damage. The three companies of militia from Cincinnati as well as several squads of Cincinnati police restored order in the town today. As yet no looting has been reported. The river fell slightly today.

The death list cannot be estimated any better tonight than it could last night although it appears certain that it will run well into three figures.

National Guard Ready.

A message from Governor Cox declared: "Entire Ohio national guard ordered to hold themselves in instant readiness to proceed to Dayton as soon as it becomes possible for them to enter the city."

The first train load of provisions from Cincinnati with a detail of policemen to help in the rescue work reached here tonight. This with two cars from Springfield today relieved the immediate suffering. Word also was received that a carload of supplies was on the way from Detroit. Late this afternoon a number of refugees brought in from Simpson street told stories that gave an insight into conditions in East Dayton, hitherto unexplored. The flood victims declared that they knew of no loss of life in this section, a condition brought about largely by the fact that great number of the people had availed themselves of the warnings and fled.

Sixty-five persons were marooned in the central police station. It was reported that several patients in the receiving stations had created slight disturbances this afternoon when they were driven temporarily insane from fear and grief.

Start Panic In Columbus.

Columbus, O., March 26.—A panic was caused in this city to day when patrol wagons dashed through High street warning people to flee for their lives. The police had received a report that the great storage dam which furnishes the city with its water supply had broken. Later available automobile patrol wagon was ordered out and sent over the main section of the East side and throughout the business district reassuring the people, many thousands of whom had fled in the wild stampede.

Darkness Ends Relief Work.

Middleton, O., March 26.—Darkness tonight put an end to all relief work here and the situation insofar as information concerned it little better than it was at this time last night. The casualty list cannot be estimated with accuracy until the waters have subsided considerably. The flood fell two feet today. It is still believed that from fifty to one hundred human souls have been claimed by the waters.

The city council to day made ten thousand dollars available immediately for relief but this will only be a detail of what will really be needed. Hundreds tonight are feeling pangs of hunger. Every able-bodied person, man or woman, was pressed into service in relief work.

Little Comfort to Indiana Sufferers.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 26.—Night fell upon flood-swept Indiana with but little comfort for its many thousands of flood sufferers. The most conservative reports from throughout the state estimates loss of life at not fewer than 125 drowned while persistent statements from various points indicate that more than that number may have perished in the highwaters.

Communication from Connersville, brought definite information that at least forty persons perished in Brookville, Franklin county Monday night in the White Water River flood.

Less reliable dispatches from the same region declare that smaller towns of Metmor, Cedar Grove and Trenton are swept away completely. Late afternoon advices from Peru, sent by telephone through South Bend say that twelve bodies were recovered from a single house there and insist that the largest death figures for that city are not exaggerated. Peru is the most completely demoralized city in Indiana, but for Te Wavne, Logansport, LaPayette and Terre Haute have experienced loss of life and great property damage with practically all public service destroyed in each.

Indianapolis has a certain loss of life in the western part of the city from the great flood expenses along White River and an incalculable property loss in the most substantial districts throughout the Fall Creek district.

Three Flood Districts. The districts of flood districts prevail throughout the state, each but a few miles wide yet sweeping across the entire width of Indiana. In the north all the towns and cities along the Wabash and its larger tributaries are affected; while river sweeps through central Indiana with Indianapolis the greatest sufferer; while White Water River drains a valley in the middle southern portion of

ADRIANOPLE FALLS BEFORE BALKAN FORCES

SHUKRI PASHA CARRIES THREAT TO DESTROY TOWN

From All Accounts Armies, Stores and Much of City Are in Flames —Tchatalja Also Reported Fallen.

LONDON, MARCH 26.—Adrianople has fallen after one of the most stubborn defenses in the history of warfare and Tchatalja, according to a telegram received by the Bulgarian legation at London tonight, has suffered a like fate.

The information regarding Tchatalja refer to the town of that name, and not the fortifications, although it is possible the Bulgarians carried all before them.

Shukri Pasha, the defender of Adrianople, handed his sword this afternoon to General Savoff, the Bulgarian generalissimo—not, however, before carrying out his threat to destroy the town rather than let it fall into the hands of the Bulgarians.

From all accounts the arsenals, stores and much of the town are in flames. It was also reported that Shukri Pasha had taken his own life, but this proved untrue as, after deciding resistance was no longer possible, he sent word to General Savoff that he was burning the city. The battle which preceded the surrender commenced Sunday night with a three hours bombardment. Later, the besieging troops in the east advanced at double quick under the glare of searchlights to attack the advanced works at Maslake. After a fierce defense lasting throughout Monday, the Turks retired from the forward forts.

The attack was renewed and Tuesday and Wednesday the important inner forts were taken after hard fighting. According to a dispatch received at Belgrade from Mustapha Pasha the sacrifices were very heavy. The Serbian thirteenth and the Bulgarian eighteenth regiments were blown up by mines and other regiments sustained great losses.

PREDICTS CESSATION OF RAIN IN FLOOD DISTRICTS

Weather Bureau Says Storm Will Move Rapidly Northeast Into Ocean.

Washington, March 26.—Cessation of rain in the flood districts within the next twenty four hours was predicted tonight by the United States weather bureau.

"The storm which is now centered in Kentucky, and which has been causing general precipitation for several days," said the forecast, "will now move rapidly northeast and pass into the ocean by Thursday night accompanied by rains and shifting gales and followed by fair and much colder weather. The weather Friday will be fair throughout practically the entire country."

A repetition of the flood in the Ohio river experienced in January of this year, with a probable stage at Cairo of at least fifty feet within the next ten days, is indicated according to the bureau experts.

PROGRESSIVE REPUBLICANS HAVE PLAN TO SUPPORT ADMINISTRATION

Four Declare They Will Support Measures of a Progressive Character Proposed by Wilson Administration.

Washington, March 26.—Definite announcement of the plan of certain progressive Republicans in the house to support President Wilson's administration in the accomplishment of the Progressive policies was made today. Representatives Kent of California, Lenroot of Wisconsin, Anderson of Minnesota and Helgeson of North Dakota announced the would not join the new Progressive organization which proposes to nominate Representative Victor Murdock for speaker, but would support measures proposed by the Wilson administration as long as they considered them of a Progressive character. Steps were taken late today by some of the men named to call a conference of progressive Republicans to determine upon a plan of action. All of the representatives who will be asked to attend have already been invited to join the distinct progressive organization.

BURIAL OF DEAD CONTINUES ALL DAY AT OMAHA

Fifty Two Funerals Held—Many Cases of Destitution Reported.

Omaha, Neb., March 26.—Fifty-two funerals silently winding their way to cemeteries brought homes with greater force to the people of Omaha to day the full realization of the extent of Sunday's tornado. All day long as fast as hearses could deposit their grim cargoes at the graves, a continual death procession was kept up. Color, creed and nationality were forgotten. It was a general burial.

There was little ceremony. In several instances where entire families were killed or where more than one member of a family awaited burial one funeral service was held. Many cases of destitution were reported to day. Relief work seemed to slow up. The task of finding for these needy folk, clothing, supplies and money seemed to be too large for the relief workers.

ILLINOIS TOGA DEADLOCK ENDED

Colonel Lewis Chosen for Long and Sherman for Short Terms

BREAK WAS ANTICIPATED

Ten Republicans and Twenty-Five Democrats Refuse to Enter Deal

SENATORS ADDRESS ASSEMBLY

SPRINGFIELD, ILL. MARCH 26.—Governor Dunne's plan for breaking the senatorial deadlock was put into effect to day.

Colonel James Hamilton Lewis of Chicago, was elected for the full six year term.

Judge Lawrence Y. Sherman of Springfield was elected to fill the unexpired term of two years to succeed Albert J. Hopkins who vacated the office March 4th, 1909. This office was filled by William Lorimer until the United States senate declared that there had been no legal election.

Colonel Lewis was the choice of the Democratic party, in the primary election of last April, for the long term senatorship to which he was elected to day.

Judge Sherman was selected in the same primary as the Republican choice for the long term senatorship.

An out-in-the-open combination of seventy Democrats and sixty Republicans made possible the double election. It ended a tie-up starting February 12th and continuing forty three days.

One hundred sixty four members cast their votes for Colonel Lewis for the long term. Judge Sherman received a total of 143 votes for the short term office.

Twenty-five Democrats refused to become parties to the Lewis-Sherman deal and did not cast their votes for Judge Sherman for short term senator. They voted for Charles Boeschstein of Edwardsville.

Ten Republicans likewise declined to enter the coalition. Nine of them voted for Judge Sherman for the long term and Senator Gray for the short term and not voting.

Frank H. Funk, senatorial candidate of the Progressive party, received twenty-two votes on each roll call.

The four Socialists went down with colors flying. They cast their four votes for Barney Berlyn for the long term and Duncan McDonald for the short term.

Break Was Anticipated.

Following Judge Sherman's declaration of yesterday that he would subordinate his personal wishes in the matter in order to permit the business of the general assembly to proceed, it was anticipated that the break would come today. As a result the galleries were bulging with spectators before 10 o'clock. It was the first time since Illinois became a state, in 1818, that two United States senators were elected at the same time.

Senator Lewis and Sherman were accompanied to the chamber by Governor Dunne. All three were heard, in felicitous speeches, in which the members were thanked for bringing the deadlock to an end and each of the speakers pronounced it the only honorable way in sight.

BATES EXPELLED FROM BOARD. Chicago, Ill., March 26.—Mark Bates, until recently president of the grain firm of W. G. Press & Co., was expelled from the board of trade today. The directors found "Bates guilty of cross trading." Frank M. Bunch, former president of the board of trade, was expelled a short time ago on similar charges.

FIRE RAGING AT FRANKLIN.

Middleton, O., March 26.—The sky is illuminated tonight in the direction of Franklin, O. five miles from Miamisburg. A telephone message to Middletown stated that the residence of J. Newcomb, at Franklin was on fire and that it looked as though an entire block would be destroyed. The town is under water and no fire protection is possible.

WEATHER INDICATIONS AND TEMPERATURES.

Washington, March 26.—For Illinois: Snow flurries followed by fair Thursday; Friday fair with rising temperature, brisk northwest winds becoming light and variable shifting to south Friday.

CONDITIONS IN FLOOD DISTRICT UNCHANGED

the state where many towns, small cities have been affected.

Smaller streams throughout the valleys, all tributaries to the one or the other of the principal rivers are swollen and causing more or less damage.

Flood deaths may never be accurately known and efforts of all flood relief workers were directed to day toward rescuing persons still in dangerous places. It is generally admitted that at least 20 lives have perished in West Indianapolis where the flood struck foreign quarters and poorer homes with overwhelming suddenness last night. Six deaths were reported from Fort Wayne, three from New Castle, two from Lafayette, one from Rushville, one from Muncie and five scattering throughout the state, in addition to other reports.

One Block of Peru Remains.
The most reliable information obtainable from Peru said that but a single block of the city remains altogether and that thousands are packed into buildings in a small area downtown.

At Logansport flood waters of the Wabash are sixteen feet deep in floors of the Pennsylvania railroad station and cadets from the Culver military academy were rushed to Logansport to aid in the rescue and relief of scores of people marooned in the business districts.

Many women rescued in West Indianapolis were taken from their flooded homes unconscious or succumbed to the excitement after realizing they were safe. Physicians were unable to pass the demand for medical attention for the refugees.

Late this afternoon the east span of the West Washington street bridge fell into the river and shortly afterward a pier washed out beneath the Kentucky avenue bridge, nearly a mile below, which now is expected to give way completely. This leaves only the Oliver avenue traffic bridge and two railroad bridges the first almost cut off by water, which can possibly be used in rescue work in West Indianapolis.

Seek Refuge in Business Blocks.
Peru, Ind., March 26.—Most of the 15,000 people of Peru are huddled tonight in the upper stories of the business blocks near the court house which is the center of the relief work. All day they watched the muddy waters which rushed over the city's pavements and permit search of the homes in streets near the river, which they believe contain upwards of fifty bodies. So far only five are known to have been drowned.

City officials and members of the citizens committee assert that the death list will not be less than fifty. They cannot see how the occupants of the twelve cottages on Wallace Row escaped the rapids which poured over the banks of the Wabash river, which after reaching a high water mark on Monday evening, suddenly rose seven feet in three hours. One man who came from the West Perry district today said he saw twelve bodies floating in one house. The only person who has been along Canal street where the great loss of life is believed to have occurred has not returned. It is not known whether he crossed the river which has increased in width from 400 yards to four miles. The identified dead are:

Mrs. Rose Whittle.
Mrs. Opie Smith.

Man Rescues Family.
An infant is known to have drowned and boatman reported seeing the bodies of a man and woman in embrace floating down Second street. Alexander Clevinger carried his wife and three children on his back through water waist deep to the Miami court house. There he secured a row boat and rescued a neighbor and her infant. On the way to the court house the boat was crushed by a telephone pole. The woman grasped some wires and kept afloat until Slevinger reached her. The child was lost.

A boat which was carrying a man from his house to safety, sprung a leak and the man took refuge on the ledge of a building where he remained for nine hours before relief came. Charles Chapman rescued two women from a cottage on the second story of a cottage where they had stood in water to their knees for four hours today. A woman and her daughter were taken from the front porch of their home on Third street where they had been for 36 hours. The child had the mumps and may die from exposure.

THE BIRTH RECORD.
Born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. S. Marshall of 208 Richard street, a 9-12 pound daughter, Marion Elizabeth.

Persons holding Illini Lodge No. 4, warrants please present them at Dunlap-Russell bank for payment not later than Friday.

NOTICE.

Those who were fortunate to have stoves in upper floors of their homes burned furniture in the absence of fuel.

Four carloads of supplies arrived near the city today.

Carry Food to Court House.
Sixty boats were used throughout the day to carry the foodstuffs to the court house. At night fall much of it still stood along the right of way but owing to the enthusiasm of the workers not one refugee went without a supper tonight. Many carloads of food stuff still are needed to prevent famine.

Governor Ralston in telephonic communication tonight promised relief.

The waters receded five inches during the day and it is believed that the crest of the flood is over. The Miami county company's lumber yards burned tonight.

Sends $500 to Ohio.
Springfield, Ill., March 26.—Five hundred dollars was sent this afternoon to Governor Cox of Ohio by the Springfield Relief committee organized early in the morning by Commissioner Coe, acting mayor. Money continued coming all through the afternoon and by noon tomorrow a much larger contribution is expected to be ready to send to the relief of the flood sufferers.

Peru, Ind., March 26 (via telephone to South Bend).—Details of the disastrous flood which visited Peru, drowning scores of its inhabitants and rendering homeless more than half its population, were obtained late today when rescuers succeeded in propelling boats through the inundated streets. The facts established were:

Number of persons drowned estimated from fifty to one hundred and fifty. It is impossible to learn exactly, as many bodies are hidden in houses still wholly submerged.

Number of persons homeless, 7500. Two hundred and twenty-five injured or sick survivors rescued and removed to a temporary hospital at Plymouth, Ind.

Property loss, $2,500,000. Only two of the dead identified. Mrs. Rose Whittle and Mrs. Elsie Smith, tenants of what was known as "Walnut Row," composed of twelve frame cottages, where twelve families were discovered.

Winter quarters of a big circus menagerie destroyed, about 500 valuable animals being drowned.

Orders to Shoot Looters.
Citizens, finding lawlessness in every block of the city above water, organized a vigilance committee with orders to shoot looters.

Conditions tonight:
Several thousand persons still marooned in the court house, hospital, factory buildings, and other structures, because the various relief parties sent from South Bend and other cities had not sufficient boats to carry them to the nearest dry land three miles away. Snow falling heavily and suffering intense because of the lack of heating facilities, city in darkness except for a scant supply of lanterns.

The city had no electric light power and no drinking water supply. The only communication from Peru today was maintained over a feeble telephone line. Much food, clothing and blankets already have arrived here but more help is needed.

Devote Day to Rescuing Survivors.
The difficulty of beginning anything like a list of dead was explained by the fact that the rescue parties devoted the entire day to carrying away the survivors who had climbed to perilous positions on icy roofs. Ten men who had remained for two days on top of the tank at the water works, became panic stricken at the sight of the first rescue boat. Most of these men fell into the water in attempting to jump to the boat and several of them were carried away by the turbulent water rushing through the street.

A woman in an upper story of a building in Fifth avenue and Main street of the city begged so piteously to be rescued that she was helped into an already well laden boat and taken ashore.

"Our energies are being devoted entirely to saving those still living," said Lieutenant Governor O'Neill, "it is impossible for us even to try to learn the whereabouts of the bodies just now."

It was said that many of those taken to the hospital at Plymouth had become sick through drinking muddy water. One of the rescue party who made the trip in the first boat that entered the city, said:

"We learned from the survivors that the flood rushed in upon the city at about ten o'clock on Monday night. The river rose six feet in three hours. Warning had been given some of the residents but many failed to heed it."

Families Are Marooned.
Chicago, March 26.—Farmers with their families are marooned on railway embankments for miles in flooded Ohio, according to reports brought by long delayed railway passengers arriving here late today. W. C. Watkins of Tiffin, O., said:

"From Alliance to Cleveland the land is like a sea," he said. "I saw people in trees, some sitting up and others hanging over limbs as if they were frozen to death. The nearer ones would wave to us and call out feebly asking us to send help. I saw one man drop into the water with a great splash as the train crept by a hundred yards away. It was a horrible sight."

"There are floods as far as one can see at Tiffin. As the train pulled out I saw a house going slowly by on the water with twelve people huddled on it. The house struck some snag under water and rolled over. All the people were thrown overboard and I did not see any of them climb back. It was freezing cold. Farm animals, were on the embankment with the people. For miles the railway line was the only refuge from the water."

Begged for Help and Food.
"It was pitiful to see these poor, cold and suffering people beg us as we passed to take them on board. They begged for help and for food. Congressman Frank Buchanan of Chicago who was a passenger on the same train with Mr. Watkins,

A LOAF OF BREAD

To Some People Means a Certain Number of Ounces of Dough Put in a Pan and Baked

To us it means this: A food product that should represent the highest possible standard of quality. Time was, when people only bought bread when there was no time for baking at home. But in the past few years there has been a growing sentiment in favor of "buying bread." We believe that the Ideal Bakery is largely responsible for this change in our city and community and attribute the growing demand for our product to the following facts:

We employ only thoroughly competent bakers.

We use only one of the highest grade spring wheat flours on the market: "Ethen Allen."

We wrap our loaves in moisture proof and germ proof waxed wrappers.

As a result of this you have:

COMPLIMENTS MISS SHEPPARD.

The Peoria Herald Transcript in making reference to the post-graduate recital of Miss Edna Sheppard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Sheppard of this city, had the following to say:

"Miss Edna Sheppard of the Peoria Musical college, and a student of Mrs. Stead, gave her post-graduate recital assisted by Mr. Stafford, violinist, and Miss Baptiste, accompanist, in Music hall of the Women's club Tuesday evening. Miss Sheppard opened her program with the difficult, Tausig arrangement of Bach's Fantasy and Fugue and in this number she did much of her best work of the evening. Miss Sheppard is very musical. She has great poise and her playing always very refined, all of the above points were thoroughly proven in her excellent playing of Schumann's Night Song and Brahms' Scherzo; in these two numbers Miss Sheppard did her best playing. In the Debussy numbers she gave just the right touch of tone coloring to bring out the composer's meaning and these were also beautifully played.

"In the difficult twelfth rhapsodie which abounds in all kinds of technical difficulties, Miss Sheppard had opportunity to display her well schooled technique and many other strong points which she possesses. This number made a brilliant closing to a finely rendered program. Her other numbers were five Chopin preludes and two Moszkowski numbers, which the audience thoroughly enjoyed."

AT GOVERNOR'S MANSION.

Governor and Mrs. Edward F. Dunne received the members of the general assembly for the first time since the new administration came in Wednesday night. The mansion was gay with spring flowers and during the evening Miss Josephine Lyndon of Chicago, a notable singer, and who has been a house guest at the mansion for several days sang. Receiving Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Barrett O'Hara, Secretary of State and Mrs. Harry Woods, Treasurer and Mrs. William Ryan, Jr., Auditor James J. Brady and mother, Mrs. Margaret Brady, Attorney General and Mrs. F. J. Lucy and Speaker McKinley of the house of representatives.

Assisting in the various rooms and acting as hostesses were Mesdames John Pierik, Stuart Broadwell, Anna Smith, C. V. Hickox, Richard Yates and Mrs. Richard Oglesby of Elkhart.

RUSSIAN PIANIST'S CONCERT NEAR AT HAND

The coming of Theodor Sturkow Ryder, the celebrated Russian pianist, is being talked of a great deal among local musicians and her appearance here next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock will no doubt attract an unusual large audience. The concert will take place in Music hall at the Woman's college at 8 o'clock.

MOTOR CARS TO REPLACE OLD COACHES

C. P. & St. L. Purchases Four New Gaso-Electric Vehicles and Orders Ten New Engines—Entire Track Is To Be Relaid.

If the plans under contemplation by the C. P. and St. L. railroad are carried out, it will result ultimately in the replacing of steam by gaso-electric motors for handling passenger traffic. Four new gaso-electric passenger cars are to be placed in service on the road this summer. The cars have been ordered from the National Motor Car company, and will be delivered within a few weeks. They are of an entirely different type from the motors which have been used, having a seating capacity of 75 passengers. They are 75 feet in length and are of a highly improved type.

It is not probably that this division of the C. P. will not get to use the motor car, although such a thing is possible. They will be operated principally in the south division between Alton and Piasa and on the northern division between Springfield, Havana and Petersburg. This motor car service will be an additional passenger service to that already conducted, and it is thought that in a short time that the motor cars will take the place of the steam passenger trains.

The C. P. has also purchased eleven new locomotives and a large number of coal and freight cars. The company also intends to put considerable work on the tracks. If the present plans work out the entire system will be retracked in the next few years. There has been considerable gossip that the company officials intend to construct a line between Havana and Rock Island, but the report has been denied.

FEED MORE CATTLE.

Steers Pay More Than the Elevator For the Corn They Eat—Silage Makes Cheap Beef.

Feeding livestock must be considered from the standpoint of fertility of the soil and not alone from that of direct profit in the cattle or other animals. Beef cattle even more than dairy cattle can make an excellent use of some of the by-products of the farm that cannot be used in any other way.

It has been demonstrated at the University of Illinois through a series of years that the money received for corn which is fed to cattle was more than the corn would have brought in the market.

The manure is worth considerably more than the labor involved in feeding cattle. There is not enough livestock in Illinois and this is a serious mistake on the part of our farmers. Practically half of the corn grown in Illinois is shipped out of the state—enough to fatten two million steers. If the manure from these were properly preserved and applied to the land in connection with phosphate and limestone, it would increase the producing capacity of this state $12,000,000. That is not a fancy or a theory—it is a fact. Livestock consumes about 80 per cent of our corn, and the high price of corn is caused by the demand for it to feed live stock far more than by its use as human food. Destroy the live stock market for corn and the price of corn will be much lower.

Summer Feeding.

Dry lot feeding in summer is not advised, but we may have to come to it—it remains to be demonstrated. One thing we are sure of: pasture on high priced land is the most expensive cattle feed. Silage and alfalfa makes cheaper beef than anything else. Both these can be kept throughout the year. No man has yet been found to abandon this method after its adoption. At the University of Illinois the beef breeding cows were wintered cheaper on silage and alfalfa hay than they could be kept in the summer. A silo 18x36 feet is ample to supply silage six months for fifty steers. Corn silage and alfalfa hay make an almost perfectly balanced ration and both of these can be abundantly produced on almost every farm in Illinois.—H. A. McKeene, Secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute, Springfield, Ill.

THE ART OF CORRECT DRESS

The Third Article in the Series.

Now Comes the Important Step.
Choosing the Dress Fabric

With an American Lady Corset to accentuate the graceful lines of the figure—and a Pictorial Review Pattern having been chosen from the many dapper styles, milady of fashion next turns her attention to selecting the fabric for her new dress. There are, we might say, millions of different patterns brought out each season, and from this vast output the merchant must choose his line, the wisdom of his selections being based upon how well he understands the likes and dislikes of the community he serves.

This store has long been known as "the store for dress goods and silks"—and our ability to always bring on the styles which prove most acceptable to the women of this territory is demonstrated anew each season. We specialize on dress fabrics

No matter what your need may be in the dress goods line—from the simple house dress to the party, graduation, or wedding gown, this store stands out pre-eminently the place to make your selections. You will be interested in our spring showing of the new silks, such as Crepe Meteor, Satin Charmeuse, Brocaded Charmeuse, Cheney Bros.' spot-proof Foulards—and the new Bulgarian Trimming Silks

HIGH WATER DAMAGES.

Illinois River High.

Fears are entertained that the Illinois river will rise to a higher point than at any time in its history. Yesterday a register of five inches was made. At the Chicago and Alton bridge at Grand Pass the water has reached a dangerous point.

Apple Creek Raging.

News from districts to the south of White Hall and of Carrollton that the low lands there are under water. The levee protecting the Hartwell drainage district from Apple Creek has broken and the whole country is flooded. The water is so confined that it is not possible that the land can be farmed this year. Apple Creek was never known to be so high in the memory of the oldest residents of that portion of the country. This district is about nine miles west of White Hall. The Fairbank ranch district is safe as a good levee protection is there. The Gregory ranch is flooded on account of the levee breaking Tuesday night. The sluice way of the Hillview levee and drainage district, the pumping house of the district, has been threatened for the past two days but it is thought that the danger point has passed.

Trains Annulled On Wabash.

This division of the Wabash railroad has not suffered greatly from the big rains, although the trains are making a slower schedule on account of the tracks being soft. The service between Lafayette and Fort Wayne has been crippled and several trains have been annulled between Decatur and Lafayette. The high water has also interfered with traffic between Decatur and St. Louis.

Salt Creek Bridge Out.

Traffic on the Chicago and Alton railroad has been greatly retarded because of the high waters. The bridge at Salt Creek near Greenview is out and no trains were run over the Alton into the city last night. All during the day the trains were detained via Springfield, Roodhouse and the Murrayville cut off. No 33 south bound which is due in here at 3:55 did not reach the city till 5:10.

Bridges Washed Away.

Reports still come in of the high waters in the Maudslatter, Indian and Apple Creeks. Many bridges in that district have been washed away and all the low lands are flooded. S. O. Shuff is mourning the loss of a substantial bridge on his farm in the Indian creek drainage district. This bridge was built last year and was thought to be high enough to escape the floods.

The rural mail carriers have been experiencing a difficult time in making their routes. On Tuesday all started out but only about half completed the trip. Yesterday most of the routes were made but about twice the time was consumed in getting through.

CONDITIONS AT TERRE HAUTE.

George E. Matthews was in communication for a few moments last night with Isaac Powers at Terre Haute which has suffered from the flood and storm. Mr. Powers reported that no trains would go out of the city during the night and that the electric plant would probably be down. The flood is from the Wabash river which runs along the western edge of the city. West Terre Haute a suburb on the west bank is in the greatest danger, as it is on the lower ground than Terre Haute proper. Although near the river the packing plant of which Mr. Powers has charge is on high enough ground to be in little danger.

CONDITIONS IN FLOOD DISTRICT UNCHANGED

said that it would be well night impossible to get relief into the country in time to save thousands of lives.

"It is a task for the government," he said. "No private enterprise would be equal to it. I would hate to say how many people will starve and freeze to death long before aid possibly can reach them."

Twenty bodies which had floated down from Peru were taken from under the interurban bridge at Logansport, Ind., this afternoon. Searchers were finding others as a Pennsylvania train which had been stalled in four feet of water in the Logansport yards was dragged out and started on its way to Chicago. Recovery of the bodies was told of by Barney M. Day of Elizabethtown, Ky., who was on the marooned train.

"We were stuck in Logansport from 8 last night to this afternoon," said Day. "I slept last night in the Logansport Baptist Church with fifty other passengers, men and women."

"They began finding bodies stuck in the brush and driftwood under the electric railroad bridge this afternoon. I counted twenty hoisted out. They were still looking when we left."

Lewistown Reservoir Weakening
Sidney, O., March 26.—The Lewistown Reservoir has weakened in several places and grave fears are entertained that it will break. Sidney is partially under water and several deaths are reported.

Zanesville, O., Under Water.
New York, March 26.—A message from the Western Union office at Zanesville, O., was received here tonight as follows:

"Entire city under water. It is coming into our office. The building next door has just collapsed and I am compelled to leave now for safety."

Here the message ended abruptly. It was assumed by the officials here that the operator was forced to swim from his post.

Governor Cox Reviews Situation.
New York, March 26.—Governor James M. Cox of Ohio telegraphed tonight from Columbus as follows:

"The exact extent of the appalling flood in Ohio is still unknown. Every hour impresses us with the uncertainty of the situation. The waters have assumed such unknown heights in many parts of the state that it will be hardly less than a miracle if villages and towns are not wiped out of existence in the southern and southwestern parts of Ohio. The storm is moving south of east."

"Please give great publicity to an appeal for help. My judgment is that there has never been such a tragedy in the history of the republic."

"Columbus was the center of all activities in behalf of the stricken cities. Every hour has apparently been filled with an accumulation of drastic circumstances."

"Piteous appeals have been made by men whom were surrounded by water and confronted by the approaching conflagration in the city of Dayton. Every human energy has been exerted to give relief and yet the measure of assistance has been comparatively small."

"It is my belief, however that by daylight tomorrow those imprisoned in the business section of Dayton can be relieved."

"The day began by storm signal from the weather bureau, advising that there would be a dangerous rise in the waters of the Muskingum river, all the towns along its source, including Zanesville and Marietta, were advised. Before noon the situation assumed a critical aspect at Zanesville and the historic 'Y' bridge was blown up with dynamite."

"The loss of life in Zanesville is uncertain because all telephone communication ceased at noon. Marietta cannot be reached but it is safe to assume that the same devastating results at Zanesville were carried on to Marietta."

"A flood situation developed in the Maumee and Sandusky valleys in northwestern Ohio but the damage to life and property was nothing compared with that in the south."

Raise Large Relief Fund.
Chicago, March 26.—The Chicago Association of Commerce today received subscriptions of $54,732 to its flood relief fund. The amount was subscribed by members in advance of the association's public appeal.

Indiana Bridges Endangered.
Gary, Ind., March 26.—Bridges of the Pennsylvania, Michigan Central, Gary and Interurban and railroads were endangered tonight by the rise of the Deep and Little Calumet rivers. More than fifty families in the southern part of the city have been driven from their homes. The Little Calumet river, in some places, is three miles wide.

Ohio River 33 Feet High.
Portsmouth, O., March 27.—With the Scioto river pouring a volume of water into the Ohio the tension is high as to what tomorrow will bring. The Ohio is 33 feet high tonight and rising a foot an hour. The indications are that the danger line will be reached tomorrow. Unconfirmed reports were received here tonight that the Scioto had reached the second floors of houses at Piketon and the water is going up over a foot an hour at Lucasville, eleven miles north of Portsmouth.

The Norfolk and Western railroad has annulled all trains north and west from here.

Iowa Governor Asks Aid.
Des Moines, Iowa, March 26.—Governor G. W. Clarke, issued an appeal tonight asking aid for the flood sufferers of Ohio and Indiana.

Relief Train Leave Chicago.
Chicago, March 26.—A relief train carrying life boats was sent out from here at 5 p. m. for Fort Wayne, Ind. The boats were meant to rescue occupants of an Orphan Asylum on the St. Marys river near Fort Wayne.

Disaster Beggars Discription.
Arcanum, O., March 26.—By Phone From Milton—The ASSOCIATED PRESS headquarters were established in Dayton tonight in the Van-Cleve school house after much difficulty and it will be early tomorrow probably before direct wire communications can be established with the outside world from this station which is across the city from the Associated Press wire at the National Cash Register plant.

The west levee of the Big Miami river that went out yesterday morning carried death and destruction in its wake. The immensity of the disaster is beyond description. Fire broke out in the business section of the city tonight and a drizzling rain added to the discomfort.

The dead are being removed from the streets in North Dayton and it is apparent that the death list will run into the hundreds and possibly thousands before the extent of the catastrophe is known. Refugees are being cared for in the public schools and churches. Fire has already destroyed many of the largest buildings and hotels and the city hall and police quarters have been abandoned. The river has fallen six feet in the last 24 hours and many buildings are undermined. The water supply has been cut off in the business district. It is impossible at this time to estimate the loss.

The relief committee asked Governor Cox to rush troops to Riverdale and Brookville.

Estimates Dead at Thousands.
Columbus, O., March 26.—That the loss of life in Dayton will not be less than one thousand, was the estimate made this evening by Governor Cox after an analysis of the information from the center of the city which was cleared through this office.

"How many more than that there will be, no one can tell," he said. The fire which this afternoon swept the block bounded by Jefferson, Second, Third and Saint Claire streets subsided somewhat tonight. All the people in the block were saved. This final word came early tonight from telephone operator John Bell, to relieve the anxiety of the crowd which hung over the end of the wire in the Governor's office all day.

"All the women and children who were in the block are removed to safety in the Beaver Power Building," announced the calm voice of Bell.

"There were thirty of them."

Supply Train Leaves Toledo.
Toledo, O., March 26.—In a blinding snow storm a train bearing supplies for the flood sufferers at Dayton and environs left here tonight. Besides one company of naval reserves under command of Captain Jacoby, the train was to carry three carloads of boats, including two cutters and a gig from the U. S. training ship Essex, a large quantity of provisions and $1,000 in money.

The state legislature today appropriated $250,000 relief for sufferers.

Twenty Dead at Sharon.
Pittsburgh, Pa., March 26.—At Sharon, Pa., twenty persons are reported to have been drowned when the Shenango river overflowed its banks tonight. The property damage in Sharon and vicinity is said to be close to $2,000,000.

Reports 500 Drowned at Lima.

Lima, O., March 26.—That at least 500 people lost their lives in the flood at Piqua and that fifty were drowned at Troy, is the statement of C. C. Moore, telephone inspector of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton railroad, who returned to this city tonight after viewing the situation in both cities. Moore said that Piqua refugees had been without food for a day and a half. Only the west side of the city is above water. Rescuers in boats chopped holes in the house roofs and took out flood victims. He saw scores of bodies floating in the water. Moore said that eight companies of militia reached Piqua on the west side of the city. The rescuers had only four boats with which to work. Twenty-six houses were swept away bodily as he watched. At Troy three blocks of unsanitary territory shelters about all of the population of the city. He was told by the station agent they were marooned on the second stories of their homes suffering from hunger and cold but in no immediate danger from the flood. The dead were mostly residents of the negro section. That the Lake View dam, which holds the Lewiston reservoir at Lake View, may go out momentarily was the message here at midnight from the telephone operators there.

"I shall have to leave here for my own safety within a very few minutes," said the operator. The state patrolmen who are in charge of the situation at Lake View sent a call to Columbus for more help.

Government Aids Sufferers.
Washington, March 26.—The principal functions of the government of the United States to day was to extend relief to the thousands of homeless survivors of the Ohio and Indiana floods.

Every agency of the government moved swiftly to assist the state authorities in providing food, shelter and medical attention for the sufferers. All troops of the department of the east were ordered to hold themselves in readiness for duty in the flood districts. One million rations sufficient to feed 200,000 people for five days at least are being hurried to the Ohio and Indiana towns.

Tents to shelter at least fifty thousand people, thousands of blankets, coats, hospital and field supplies, are being loaded. The president called upon the people of the nation to contribute money liberally to the American Red Cross, which in turn appealed to the governors of the states to help gather relief funds.

Nine medical officers and 54 hospital corps went from the department of the east, carrying a big supply of surgical dressings, a anti-typhoid prophylactics and the complete "reserve medical supply," comprising hundreds of drugs sufficient to treat twenty thousand persons for one month. Precautions against the spread of disease are to be handled by sanitation experts.

Life saving crews were ordered from Louisville to Dayton and from Lorain, Ohio, to Delaware, Ohio, and the public health service distributed its agents over the afflicted districts.

What's the price of a good suit of clothes?

TWENTY-FIVE dollars. You can buy our clothes for less than that--$20, $18; you can pay more than that--we have very fine clothes at $30, $35, $40. But $25 is a good average price; most men who appreciate good quality and style in clothes, good tailoring and fit, are willing to pay as much as $25.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

suits at $25 will surprise you; particularly if you've been accustomed to going to a custom tailor to have clothes made to measure; more particularly if you've patronized the so-called low-priced tailor; most particularly if you're getting what you think are made-to-measure clothes at $25 or less.

You'll get all-wool fabrics; trimmings, linings and other materials of a high grade; tailoring of a very high order--the things that make a suit wear well, and keep shapely. You'll get the value of best style standards and originality of design; you'll get clothes that fit you well.

And you'll gain from $10 to $20, either in greater value at the price; or lower price for similar value.

Better see how true this is; $25 is a price you can afford, and you'll say so when you see the clothes. Better come in and look at the new spring styles.

THE REDEMPTION

A Powerful Dramatic Feature

INTWO FILMS

A Strong Moral Drama in Which is Proven the Theory that 'A Criminal is Only a Criminal Because He Has Not Had the Proper Opportunity to Develop An Honest Character.'

"RED" ELLIS, a knight of the underworld on whom the experiment is tried, twice starts to betray Grey, his benefactor, but each time his conscience restrains him. The second time, however, his old gang outwits him and one of their number makes off with a necklace belonging to Grey. The guilt falls on Ellis; but Grey, still believing in Ellis, allows him to go on his promise to recover the necklace in half an hour. The time has almost expired when Ellis rushes into Grey's parlor tightly gripping the necklace in his hand.

The intense interest of the story, the acting, the clever production, and the marvelous portrayals, combine to make this a masterpiece in pictures. It thrills and captivates with an irresistible force, and holds the audience spell-bound from start to finish.

Cincinnati Threatened With Flood.

Cincinnati, O., March 26.—Cincinnati is threatened with a flood tonight. At midnight the danger line was passed and the stage of 55.6 feet was reached. The river is rising an inch an hour. The Union Central station has been deserted and what few trains are operating are detouring by other routes.

At Lawrenceburg, twelve miles below this city, the Baltimore & Ohio tracks were dynamited late tonight in order to allow the backwater from the Great Miami to run out and this, it is believed, saved the town from being swamped. Despite this, four persons are reported as having been drowned there.

The Muskingum, Scioto and Great and Little Miami rivers are running out from the Ohio side while the backing is out of its banks and running out from the Kentucky side. A fifty seven foot stage by noon tomorrow is predicted by the local forecaster.

The flood has as yet claimed no life in this city.

Chicago's Irish Fellowship club has launched a plan to erect a national memorial to Brian Boru, last of Ireland's fighting kings, who perished on the bloody field of Clontarf, near Dublin, 899 years ago.

The new postmaster general has started an investigation to determine how the last four administrations left the postoffice department. The Quincy Herald says that the answer is easy—"they left it full of regrets and Republicans."

At to the election to authorize the issue of bonds to rebuild our electric light plant. Have you looked into the question, Mr. Voter, or are you simply intending to vote on the matter without investigation? We are not urging you to vote for or against, but to vote intelligently, and not through prejudice or ignorance, and you should vote. Do not let such an important business proposition be settled by a mere fraction of our people. "Light is the friend of social life, trade and commerce, and the foe of crime."

"Water in our cellars," something unusual here, under ordinary circumstances would cause a great deal of complaint. But as our people read of the disasters by wind and fire and flood that have brought death and sorrow to so many, our sympathy goes out to these cities and towns that have been so storm swept. The loss of life is appalling and the hardships and suffering these storms have left in their wake are difficult to realize. These afflicted people should have not only our sympathy, but our active and liberal support. The needy and suffering number thousands.

"No form of government, however good, will secure good government," says Mayor Gaynor of New York. That depends upon the men put in office, says the Freeport Journal. Devise as you will, contrive as you will, in forming instruments of government and laws, in the last analysis you have to trust somebody. Government depends more on men than on laws. Laws are made by men, just as lawmakers are elected by men. In other words, the power in the first place rests with the people. That's where it should be kept, but don't let it be put in cold storage and forgotten. It's like many other good things. It's perishable.

The election of J. Ham Lewis and L. Y. Sherman as senators from this state by the legislature marks the end of a long deadlock, that reflects but little credit on most of the members of that body. Weeks and months of time have been wasted. Yet the people of this state are to be congratulated that the legislature have at last been forced to do what they should have done early in the session. Mr. Lewis and Mr. Sherman are both able men and will represent the best interests of the state. Mr. Sherman is an aggressive, honest man, thoroughly versed in the needs of the entire state. He is a man who does not always wait until he finds the popular side of a question—he has a mind of his own, and with courage to fight for what he believes.

CONGRESS OF STUDENTS.
The name of Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States, heads the honorary committee on the eighth International Congress of students ("Corda Fraternitas") to be held at Cornell university, Ithaca, N. Y., August 29 to September 13. Other prominent Americans are on the committee, together with the presidents and other officers of many of the leading universities of the country. The "Corda Fraternitas," or International Federation of Students, was started in Italy in 1898, and now has affiliated organizations in many European countries and in both North and South America. The principal aim of the federation is "to support and spread the idea of unity and brotherhood among students," without regard to their religious or political beliefs. At the last congress, held in Rome in 1911, the United States was selected as the meeting place for 1913, and it was determined to take up at this time a plan for developing an all-embracing world organization of students in the higher institutions of learning.

An elaborate program of entertainment has been arranged for the delegates from other countries.

ARE THEY FORCED TO SIN?

Judge Kavanaugh, the head of the divorce commission now attempting to secure the enactment of better laws governing divorce trials in Cook county, proposes that the state's attorney be a party to all such actions, to see there is no collusion or perjury. Chicago city women denounced that action, claiming that this means divorce only when one or both parties are criminal. The following resolutions were adopted by them:

Resolved, That we are opposed to the plan proposed by the divorce commission to have the state's attorney a party to all divorce suits. We oppose it on the ground of its undesirable added expense and of its presumption that "collusion" or mutual effort to obtain a divorce is wrong. We believe the misnamed "righteous" are as deserving of relief by divorce as the misnamed unrighteous, and that persons should not be forced to commit sin in order to obtain a divorce.

Judge Kavanaugh replies that this means simply advocacy of free love. The judge takes it that the so-called "righteous" in the resolutions are those who have affinities, but do not wish to cross over except in a legal manner.

Judge Kavanaugh declared that last year there were 4,000 divorces granted in Cook county and predicted that there would be 4,500 this year. By reason of the divorces in 1912 there were 3,000 homes broken up and 4,000 children were made orphans. The judge stated that 1,200 divorces were granted in his court last year, fifty per cent of which would never have been applied for had the reforms which he proposes been put into effect.

THE CORN CROP.

Interest in the work of the Boys' Corn clubs has been stimulated by the action of our county commissioners in offering a prize worth working for in the contest for the coming year. It will help in many ways. Now if some one will offer a prize to go to the man, the owner perhaps of high priced lands, who will explain the low acreage of all the states in the production of corn—that great producing crop. In the face of the fact that members of the various boys' corn clubs of the respective states of the union last year produced averages of more than 100 bushels of corn to the acre, the actual average for all the states was less than ten bushels, comments the Canton Register.

It is not the natural fertility of the soil. It is not in locality, for the boys who accomplished these results live in a widely scattered area, from Minnesota on the north to Louisiana on the south, and from Kansas on the west to North Carolina on the east. We should say the fault is the same that makes for small business—as against large in any line of endeavor, and that fault is a lack of intelligent interest and enthusiasm. Experience has shown that the man who is generally enthusiastic in his work becomes sufficiently intelligent to learn the way to success, and learning it, very few if any ten bushel farmers. But there is no grudge neither the time nor labor necessary to attain it. And so it is with the boys.

True, they have an incentive in the honor and fame that follows the success of their enterprise. But that incentive is no greater than that which is available to the fathers who produce only ten bushels who encourage the boys to produce 100. And the time should come, whether it does come or not, when the fathers and the 100 bushel boys will be ashamed of the puerile and misdirected efforts that bring them but ten bushels of corn per acre.

Fortunately our Morgan county land has helped increase the average—we have no ten bushel land and doubt that the production could be greatly increased in this locality, if the land could be worked as the boys of the clubs manage their acre. Would it not pay to work a small acreage for all there is in it, rather than the great tracts on the old methods? The boys are showing the way with the old man benefit by his example? It is in order now to offer prizes for the greater production on forty or eighty acres.

THE SOLDIER IN POLITICS.

The Freeport Journal has the following regarding the men who have served the state in the gubernatorial office at Springfield, and while we may differ with our Freeport friend in his estimate of some of the men, yet the conclusion is timely:

The first Republican governor of Illinois was William H. Bissel, a gallant soldier of the Mexican war. He died in office and was followed in the governor's office by Lt. Gov. John Wood, also an old soldier of the Mexican war. Then came Richard Yates, Sr., the "War Governor," who was not a soldier, and he was succeeded by Richard J. Oglesby, who served as a soldier in the Mexican war, and was one of the most distinguished soldiers of the civil war, rising to the rank of major general. And then came John M. Palmer, a gallant general in the civil war, as a soldier as Illinois sent to the war. He was succeeded by Governor Richard J. Oglesby, whom the people of the state again elected governor, and almost immediately elected him United States senator, and he was succeeded by Lt. Gov. General John L. Beveridge, who had no distinction as a soldier in the civil war. And then came Shelby M. Cullom, elected twice as Governor, who was always a lucky politician, but never a soldier in any war, and who was elected United States senator at the beginning of his second term and was succeeded in the governor's office by Lt. Gov. John M. Hamilton, another most gallant soldier of the civil war. And then the people of Illinois again called back gallant old General Richard J. Oglesby, and for the third time elected that grand old soldier-governor of this state. And he was succeeded in the governor's office by private Joseph W. Effer, not a distinguished general in the army like Grant, and Logan, and Oglesby, and Palmer, but as brave and patriotic a soldier as any one of the rank who served in any army. He was succeeded in the governor's office by John P. Altgeld, a Democrat, and a soldier in the union army in the great civil war. And then came private John R. Tanner, who served as a private soldier in the brigade for a quite a time commanded by the editor of this paper, but was a successful managing politician, who was made governor by the Chicago newspaper press, and then hounded into his grave by that same press because he would not bow to its dictation. And then came Richard Yates, Jr., nominated by a trade with John R. Tanner and William Lorimer, at the Peoria convention, beating Walter Reives of Streator, who ought to have been nominated, and probably was fairly nominated, and only beaten by the deal of Yates with Tanner and Lorimer. But Yates served only one term and by a deal with Yates, Deneen was nominated, serving two terms; and he was defeated for a third term by Governor Dunne, Democrat, the Republican vote of Illinois being divided between Deneen, Republican, and Funk, a Bull Moose follower of Roosevelt, and of the Republican party when the national Republican convention did not nominate Roosevelt for a third term in the presidential office, for which he was a candidate, and was not nominated because he did not have delegates enough. The Republican party can never win an election so long as it remains divided. Funk and Deneen were both beaten, and Dunne, Democrat, elected as governor of Illinois. What kind of governor he will make is not now known. The Democrats are in the saddle in Illinois, because the Republicans were divided. For the next four years, in Illinois, as in the nation, the Democrats will control until the Republicans have sense enough to cease to be divided and the Republican party presents a solid front to the Democrats of Illinois and the nation.

TO PROMOTE SOUTHERN

AGRICULTURE.
New Orleans, March 26.—The presence of representatives of the United States department of agriculture and other agricultural experts of national reputation, at the opening here today of the conference of agricultural commissioners of the southern states, lent an air of dignity to a gathering the importance of which to the entire south is second to none. The purpose of the conference, which will continue in session until the end of the week, is to perfect a permanent organization that will work along all possible lines for the promotion of the agricultural interests of the south.

The states represented at the conference are fifteen in number and include Texas, Tennessee, Georgia, North and South Carolina, Virginia, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Kentucky, Florida, Louisiana, Arkansas and Alabama. The visitors were welcomed by Governor Hall of Louisiana and E. O. Bruner, state commissioner of agriculture. Following the adjournment of the conference the commissioners will make a tour of the rich agricultural districts of Louisiana, inspecting some of the big drainage projects under way and the progress that is being made by Louisiana farmers in the direction of crop diversification.

25 STATE EMPLOYEES

OUSTED BY BOARD.
Because of violation of civil service rules, twenty-five employees of state institutions have been ousted with the approval of the civil service commission. The discharged employees were:

Curtis, Elgin; Roy Angel, Watertown; Eunice Bennett, Elgin; Gail Buckner, Kankakee; Harvey Carr, Watertown; David F. Churchwell, Kankakee; Lula Glover, Elgin; Frances Harrison, Ethel Henderson, Charles Johnson, and Thomas C. McClure, Jacksonville; Sherman L. Irwin, Watertown; Effie McRoy, Elgin; L. L. Pullam, Kankakee; Raymond Stevens, and Andrew Turner, Watertown; Peter J. Wind, Chicago.

Guards—Ben Grimes and J. C. Maguire, Joliet.
Domestic—Marie Haslentufel.
GEORGIA D. A. R. MEET.
Augusta, Ga., March 26.—Practically every local chapter in the state of Georgia is represented by delegates at the state convention of the D. A. R. of this state, extending here today for a session extending over three days. The Augusta chapter is the host of the visiting delegates and has arranged an interesting program for the entertainment of the visitors.

NEW ORLEANS IMMIGRATION STATION.
New Orleans, March 26.—Second only to Ellis Island, in size and the completeness of its equipment, is the new federal immigration station which is to be formally dedicated here tomorrow. No expense has been spared by the government in providing a magnificent group of buildings in which to receive and examine the new-comers from foreign lands. Officials from Washington will attend the dedication and among the participants in the exercises will be Governor Hall of Louisiana and the immigration and agricultural commissioners of numerous southern states who are holding a conference here.

IS READY TO MAKE FLIGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC

German-American Aeronaut Expects to Accomplish Great Feat in Dirigible Balloon.

Vienna, March 26.—Joseph Brucker, the German-American aeronaut, who plans to cross the Atlantic in a dirigible balloon, has arranged to sail by steamship from Trieste tomorrow for the Canary Islands, where he expects to begin his voyage in about three weeks. Mr. Brucker is taking the balloon with him on the steamship and is accompanied by two assistants, who plan to make the aerial flight with him.

The balloon is called the Suchard II, and is the largest balloon in existence. Its diameter is 88 feet and its gas capacity 200,000 cubic feet. It is a non-rigid dirigible of the Paracaval type and will carry two engines of the type used in the Parseval. Each of them is 110 horsepower and weighs 800 pounds. The balloon was finished many months ago and was planned to attempt the trip a year ago, but there were some alterations to be made and this delayed the start, so it was planned to leave the Canary Islands this spring.

It is expected that with favorable winds the trip can be made in from six or eight days. It is expected that the landing will be either in the East Indies or at some point on the northern coast of South America. It is planned to run the motors alternately fourteen hours a day and to drift with the trade winds at night. The present plan is to make the trip at a height of from 500 to 600 feet. The dirigible will be steered by an ordinary vertical rudder. It is provided with large fins for rising and descending and for balancing.

The balloon has been coated with a special preparation that absorbs water from the atmosphere, to counteract the effect of the sun's rays. She will use sea water for ballast, descending to pump it in and discharging it when required. Under the gas bag is a gallery and suspended below this will be a power boat which is intended as the main living quarters of the balloon. The boat can be cut loose and used in case of accident. The dirigible will carry an ordinary compass and also a large supply of brilliant red aluminum globes. These will be dropped over-board one at a time and used as points by which to steer it being impossible to allow for the leeway of a dirigible or aeroplane when steering by compass alone.

Mr. Brucker has an abiding faith in the success of the attempt, and feels confident that unless there is some weather phenomenon not heretofore recorded in the course of the northeast trade wind he will succeed. Every precaution that human ingenuity or professional skill has suggested has been taken, and Mr. Brucker is of the opinion that only a calamity that cannot be guarded against can defeat the expedition.

VETERAN NAVAL OFFICER RETIRES.

Washington, March 26.—Rear Admiral Albert Mertz, one of the best known officers of the navy, was retired from active service today on account of having reached the age limit of 62 years. Admiral Mertz is a native of Dodge county, Wisconsin, and received his early education in his native state. He graduated from the academy at Annapolis in 1872. He possesses medals for service in the Cuban and Philippine campaigns. In the first named he served on the monitor Amphitrite and in the Philippine campaign he commanded the supply ship Glacier. In 1908 Admiral Mertz who at that time held the rank of captain, received the warmest commendation from the navy department and the department of commerce and labor for his successful accomplishment of the task of taking six vessels of the light house service from New York to San Francisco by way of the Straits of Magellan, the difficult and dangerous voyage being consummated in 124 days. In 1909 Admiral Mertz was assigned to the command of the United States naval stations in the Philippine, where he remained until about a year ago, when he was appointed governor of the naval home in Philadelphia.

NOTICE

To Farmers and Stock Raisers

We are now manufacturing under State License, the best Brand of hog food on market known as "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD". It is far superior to any Brand of Hog food on the market to day. It is guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906, Serial No. 47,673. Guaranteed analysis as follows:

Crude Fat.....10.00 to 14 per cent
Crude Protein.....52.50 to 60 per cent
Crude Fibre.....1.00 to 3 per cent
Phosphate.....10.00 to 12 per cent

What Is "Sure Fatten Hog Food"

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form.

It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration.

It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuffs, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE recommended by all leading experiment stations. It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sack, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD," analysis as above.

What "Sure Fatten Hog Food" Tankage Does.

It develops bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby, saving one third of the feed bill, one third of the labor, one third of the risk, increasing profits one third.

It grows better proportioned hogs, more meat, a d more fat, hence market-topper hogs. SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs ship well with small shrink.

While in nowise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy hogs.

A "CORN BREAD" ERA COMING

Colonel W.P. Moore, Who Introduced the Muscle-Building Food Into Illinois, Gives Recipe for Running City.

(From the University Missourian by Frank W. Rucker.)

Five hungry college boys sat down to supper in "Mother" Flanders' boarding house in Jacksonville, Ill. They had arrived a few hours before and expected the next day to enroll as students in the little college which stood on the highest point of the village site—"the hill," as it was called by the town people and the students.

One of the boys had come from Knox county, Mo. Newark, the nearest town, was 30 miles from the Mississippi and farther than that from a railroad. For this was fifty years ago. The county was still unsettled. Even today the town is 7 miles from the nearest railway station.

You can imagine then that this boy felt a little bit homesick the first night any distance away from home. Perhaps it was the first time his feet had been from beneath his mother's table at mealtime.

Each of the boys had developed enormous appetites, especially the lad from Missouri. He had traveled farther than the others and the substantial meals at home, too, were large in his memory. You know how big mother's mince pies can grow and how sweet flap-jacks and sorghum become when you can't get them. This boy had flavored his tongue for corn bread—plain, old-fashioned corn bread, made out of buttermilk and plenty of meal.

When the landlady brought in a plate filled with large light biscuits steaming hot, as white and flakey as angel food—well, most of the boys would have swelled their chests and given a little whistle as if to say, "I'm more than satisfied." But the Missouri lad was disappointed. The plate passed him four times. He ate pork and beans and jam, and that was all—no bread and butter.

Corn Bread or Nothing. "I was raised on corn bread and that's all I like," he whispered to the boy next to him as he shuffled his feet in haphazard uneasiness.

Mrs. Flanders—big-hearted, motherly woman—was always disturbed when "her boys" didn't eat what she prepared. She was never long in learning the reason.

Corn bread—she had never heard of it. It must be made from hominy, she thought. A few days later a letter went to a mother in Knox county, Missouri. It carried a postscript: "Please send recipe for corn bread at once."

This is the story of how William Pike Moore introduced corn bread into Illinois. He believes that he performed a public service in doing so. The facts are that Pike Moore still thinks that corn bread, in both the real and the abstract sense, is a good thing. He talks as if he were going to introduce corn bread into the city administration when he becomes mayor of Columbia in April. Light bread, good to look upon and pleasing to the taste, but not a real builder of nerve and muscle—not any, thank you. He wants the substantial food that the strong men of Knox, the wise men of Boone and the fearless men of Clark county were reared upon. Frankly, it is Mr. Moore's opinion that the city water and light plant under the past administration has been a sort of light bread affair. He thinks that it is not giving the public all that it should. He intends to change its constituents so it can do corn bread work, he says.

Why He Is "Colonel." He is also an advocate of municipal ownership.

Now Pike Moore is commonly known among his friends as "Colonel" Moore. He also looks like a colonel, wears a colonel hat and walks like a colonel. But he is not a colonel, he says. A big smile breaks the stern lines of his mouth as he explains it.

SOIL PROBLEMS.

Good Seed and Good Cultivation Alone Will Not Bring Large Yields.

Small crop yields in Illinois are usually charged to some fault in the practice of farming, but we have farmers in Illinois who have corrected all these. If the fault was in the method of plowing or cultivating, if small crops were due to a poor stand, if they were due to poorly bred seed, all these were corrected, and the best methods were practiced and yet they failed to secure any large increase in yields. After all known methods of soil tillage and crop management failed to grow a maximum crop the trouble was found to be in the soil itself.

What was the use of having a perfect stand of corn when half a stand was equal to the productive capacity of the soil? What was the use of planting highly bred seed when scrub seed would produce as much or more than the soil would properly feed? What was the use of planting seed enough to grow a 100 bushel crop when the soil would furnish only food enough for 50 bushels? What was the use of using the most advanced methods known in the art of agriculture when ordinary methods would meet the maximum soil capacity? What is the use of employing a "Crop Expert" when the soil is already yielding within 10 or 15 per cent of its present capacity.

Must Improve Soil.

No method of farming can secure yields above the capacity of the soil to feed, and the "County Crop Expert" who shall succeed in bringing them up to this point, will receive little credit for it because the increase will be so slight that it will be easily credited to favorable weather conditions. We should understand in the beginning that largely increased productions can not come through the adoption of any methods known to the art of agriculture, and

"Jim Hudson is responsible for that. He said I had to be called 'Colonel'." He started it going and now everybody in Columbia calls me 'Colonel' Moore.

"There is an old saying that anyone who at some time has been a captain in any army is entitled to the title of colonel in his older days. Now, I was the captain of a company of militia at one time. Yes, I was the captain of a company in Missouri at the time of the lynching of Bill Young, the desperado of Clark county, and the adjutant-general issued orders for our company to respond at the time the mob was organized. But the order was recalled before we were ready to leave.

"One of my sergeants that day was drawing a glass of beer in his saloon when I informed him of the order. He dropped his half-filled glass, breaking it on the floor, and looked at both doors. He wanted to run. Some of my men did jump the state for fear they would have to go."

"Colonel" Moore nearly always has an audience in his office on Ninth street. It makes a person wonder if there won't be some extra sessions of the city council to hear some of the "Colonel's" good stories.

He Has Held Office.

Mr. Moore has been in public office before—more than one. When a "kid" as he says, he received an appointment as revenue collector under President Andrew Jackson. He also adds that everybody in those days paid taxes. For three years he was city controller of Quincy, Ill., and was a councilman in La Grange, Mo., two years.

Columbia's next mayor is different from some other men in several respects. Haven't you noticed that the fellow who has attended several colleges usually takes some pride in telling about it? Whenever anyone asks him about his education, he begins to name off the schools, the prominent men he went to college with, the athletic teams he played on, and so on. Doesn't he? "Colonel" Moore has attended a Baptist seminary, a private academy and a college of arts and science. But he doesn't take any particular pride in the fact. William Jennings Bryan is an alumnus of the college which he attended at Jacksonville, Ill. But W. P. Moore never says anything about it.

On the other hand, Mr. Moore gives the little old log schoolhouse in Knox County the greatest credit for what he knows. The reading and writing he learned under the teaching of William R. Strachan and the mathematics which old "Doctor" Dodd crammed into his knowledge box are the points in his education he likes to talk about. "Doctor" Dodd was a remarkable mathematician by reputation and also by practice, according to Mr. Moore. The old schoolmaster was versed in the other subjects of the early schools as well.

High Tribute to a Teacher. "I never asked him a question that he could not answer," is the tribute paid in by his pupil. That means a great deal when you consider the variety and number of questions a schoolboy can ask.

Is it worth while to say that Mr. Moore was once a newspaper man? Certainly. The newspaper man ought to make a good public official, because he generally has the art of knowing the public. You don't have to wait for "Colonel" Moore to tell you that he established the Democracy at La Grange, Mo., and that he was for some time business manager of the Herald at Quincy, Ill. You can tell at once he is a past grand master of the pad and pencil. How? Why, by the way he greets you, by the pipe he smokes and by the way he tilts his chair.

The result of the soil investigations and experiments that have been conducted by the Illinois Agricultural Experiment Station and the advisory committee of the Illinois Farmers' Institute for a long term of years show conclusively that to increase crop production on our common Illinois soils we must adopt and maintain a system that will increase the phosphorus and humus content of the land. This is a land owner's problem and not until he fully realizes the fundamental fact that plants must be fed—not until he supplies the food in kind and quantity needed, will any large increase in crop yields be secured from his land.

For Definite Information. Any farmer in Illinois who desires to study this problem intelligently not employ a crop expert; he should write to the Illinois Agricultural Experiment Station, Urbana, Illinois for a copy of Bulletin No. 123; it contains a full report of the general soil survey, a colored map showing all great areas, typical illustrations of results obtained from different kinds of soil treatment, and definite information relating to the plant food required by different crops, sources, approximate cost, methods of using different plant food materials. H. A. McKeene, Secretary, Illinois Farmers' Institute.

When Burton Holmes recently gave his celebrated travelogue on "Panama" at Orchestra hall, Chicago, he was seriously interrupted by continual coughing of the audience. No one annoys willingly and if people with coughs, colds, hoarseness and tickling in throat would use Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, they could quickly cure their coughs and colds and avoid this annoyance. #### "THE QUAKER GIRL"

AT THE GRAND
Miss Ina Claire, who will sing the role of "Prudence" in "The Quaker Girl" when this famous musical comedy hit comes to the Grand opera house Monday, March 31st, is one of the youngest prima donnas in America, as she celebrated her nineteenth birthday less than a month ago. Miss Claire was given this role after four of the most famous and high-salaried musical comedy artists in America had been tried in the character and found deficient. At this time the little singer was doing imitations at the Follies Bergers in New York city and the late Henry B. Harris happened to be watching her performance one evening and decided to try her as "Prudence." The result was amazing. Miss Claire not only took New York city by storm on the opening night but so impressed other managers with her ability that she has been engaged for next season for the most desired position in musical comedy, that of leading woman of George Edwards' musical comedy home, the Gaiety theater in London. In going to London, Miss Claire will follow in the footsteps of Edna May, Marie George, May de Sousa and Polly Chase, all American girls who have gone to the Gaiety and scored tremendous hits.

CITY ATTORNEY HAIRGROVE
HAS TENDERED RESIGNATION

In Letter Addressed to Mayor Davis He Suggests That He Will Lay Down Official Duties April First or Earlier if Desired—Has Differences With Council.

City Attorney William N. Hairgrove in a letter to Mayor Davis has tendered his resignation to the city council and asks that it be accepted April 1st or at an earlier date. Mr. Hairgrove left the city Tuesday night for Springfield to do some brief work in a city suit and before he left mailed his resignation to the mayor and gave him a copy of the letter to a Journal reporter with instructions that it was not to be used until after the resignation had been received by Mayor Davis. Last night Mayor Davis stated that the communication had been received and would be presented to the council at the first meeting held. The letter reads as follows:

March 25, 1913.
To the Hon. Mayor and City Council of the City of Jacksonville, Illinois.
Gentlemen:

In the matter of the franchises from the City of Jacksonville, relating to the street railway, gas and electric utility and in fact the Public Utilities operated by the "McKinley People", I do not seem to be accord with the City Council in many respects. In fact the members of the council have spoken relative to my position in a manner which makes it very unpleasant for me to continue to act as city attorney, and the council seem to be determined on having East State, West State and South Main Streets thereby making improvements whereby the city would be stopped in any manner from proceeding against the Traction Company for operating without franchise. The city by these permanent improvements, which are to be paid for, in part, by the Public Utilities Company at the expenditure of a considerable sum of money—in fact many thousands of dollars, would be stopped from preventing the public utilities from occupying the streets of the city, regardless of their lack of franchise rights to do so.

I am not in favor and will not be a party to any of these transactions because I do not consider in so doing I would be serving the public's interest. I am honest in my opinion and in fact my opinions are so strong that they amount to conviction with me on these questions. I have arrived at the opinions that I now hold after many years of study on the questions involved.

The opinions that the mayor and the council hold seem to be firmly settled on, and under the circumstances, I could not act in a manner to meet the approval of the mayor and council in the premises, so prefer to get out of the way and let the council select some attorney, as City Attorney, who can, and will, act in conformity with the ideas of the council. It would be unpleasant for the council for me to remain in this position, and I, unquestionably, would not yield my position on the opinion of the city to purchase at end of franchise and of the power readjust gas and electric light rates at five year periods.

Client and an attorney should be in full sympathy and co-operate to act successfully.

I consider myself the attorney for the people of the City of Jacksonville, and wish to do what I consider for the best interests of the people, so therefore, without any unpleasant feeling in the premises and with no desire to prejudice or hamper the council in its conduct of affairs with the Public Utilities Company, I, at this time tender my resignation to take effect at the earliest possible date. I desire that the city council relieve me by the appointment of some one to take place on or before April 1st, 1913. Having in view that the council will promptly make such appointment, I desire and do now tender my resignation to take effect not later than April 1st, 1913.

Very respectfully,
Wm. N. Hairgrove,
City Attorney

WITH THE BOXERS.

Frank Klaus, who recently won from Bill Papke, will meet Georges Carpentier in a 20 round bout at Paris, April 17.

Harry Pollock, the New York boxing promoter, is now manager of Freddie Welsh, lightweight champion of England.

"Kayo" Brown and Bud Anderson are in training for their 20 round bout scheduled for Tom McCarey's Vernon arena on April 12.

Expert opinions are divided as to the true condition of Ad. Wolgast. Some of the boxing critics claim that Ad. is all in, while others maintain that he is as good as he ever was.

Bob McAllister, the amateur champion middleweight and heavyweight of California, made his debut as a professional at Oakland the other night, and defeated Willie Meehan in a 10 round bout.

RECENT LEGAL OPINIONS.
(West Publishing Co.)

Detective Contract Illegal.—In a recent case a contract somewhat unusual in its nature is passed upon. There was an agreement between a detective bureau and the Everwear Hosiery company (which doesn't mean that a change is not necessary) providing that the former should render secret service to the latter in and about the hosiery plant for the purpose of detecting acts of larceny and embezzlement of the goods in the factory. If successful in its investigation by in fact detecting such acts of larceny and embezzlement, a certain compensation was to be paid. Is such a contract valid? The supreme court of Wisconsin in Manufacturers' & Merchants' Inspection Bureau vs. Everwear Hosiery Company, 138 Northwestern Reporter, 624, holds that the whole tendency of the contract is to induce the promise, in order to earn his money to make charges against and fasten upon other persons charges of larceny and employment which might result in the commission of unlawful acts on the part of the parties to it, either a contract to procure evidence to produce a certain result or to induce the making of charges by the plaintiff in order to earn his fees, or to provide for traffic between the parties with persons guilty of larceny. Therefore the court holds that the contract must fail, concluding: "It is the contingent nature of the compensation and its tendency to induce false charges and all the fraud and trickery of the private detective business that prima facie stamps this contract with illegality."

Libel to Call White Person a Negress.—A libel suit for damages resulting from a publication in defendants' newspaper concerning plaintiff is reported in Express Pub. Co. vs. Orsborn, 151 Northwestern Reporter, 574. Plaintiff is a white woman. The controversy arose over a robbery in which plaintiff was gagged, chloroformed, beaten into unconscious with the butt end of a revolver, and her room ransacked. In publishing an account of the robbery defendant stated: "A hurry call came to the police headquarters last night at 11 o'clock from 117 Edna avenue, the home of a negro, who returned home, as he said, to find his sister chloroformed, gagged, and the house robbed," etc. In a subsequent issue the details were gone into more minutely and accurately, her name and address were given, but no mention was made of her color. The gist of her suit is that she was greatly mortified and humiliated by the publication that she was a negress. A trial by a jury resulted in a verdict and judgment in her favor of $500. On appeal to the court of civil appeals of Texas this is affirmed, the court holding that, considering the two articles together it was a question for the jury whether the first article referred to plaintiff, and, to justify a recovery for libel, it is not necessary that plaintiff should be named. If pointed out by circumstances or ascertainable from the words used.

Sheriff Allowed to Attend Picture Show.—In a prosecution for homicide it is reversible error for the sheriff, whose duty it is to summon the jury, to attend a moving picture show depicting a prize fight in which the deceased participated and met defeat? See State v. Dineley, 147 Northwestern Reporter, 111. This appeal is from a conviction of the murderer of Stanley Ketchel, the noted pugilist from Michigan. The story is: Dickerson, a friend of Ketchel, was interested in the prosecution of the defendants, charged with Ketchel's murder. A few days before the trial he wrote to the sheriff, and invited him and his friends to come and attend a moving picture show of the Johnson-Ketchel prize fight. The sheriff and his friends in response to the invitation attended the show, but they paid their own expenses. Dickerson made no attempt to influence the sheriff in his official conduct. Because of this the defendants filed a motion to disqualify the sheriff on the ground that he was prejudiced against them. The supreme court of Missouri holds: "While it must be said that it was a most indiscreet act in the sheriff to accept such an invitation under the circumstances disclosed, yet we cannot overlook the fact that the incumbent of that office may be and frequently is a man who has not the highest sense of propriety in such matters, and it does not follow that because of such conduct, public and unbecoming as it was, there was official wrongdoing, or that an inference should be drawn that the sheriff was prejudiced against the defendants and unfit to discharge the duties of his office in their case." The conviction of "the woman in the case" is reversed, and that of the man affirmed.

CONGRESS OF PHYSIC-
THERAPEUTICS

GOOD ADVICE.

A Jacksonville Citizen Gives Information of Priceless Value.

When you suffer from backache, Headaches, dizziness, nervousness, Feel weak, languid, depressed, Have annoying urinary disorders; Do you know what to do? Some Jacksonville people do. Read the statement that follows. It's from a Jacksonville citizen. Testimony that can be investigated. P. J. Meany, blacksmith, 333 North East street, Jacksonville, Ill., says: "When I used Doan's Kidney Pills two or three years ago, they fixed me up in good shape. My kidneys pained me terribly and my back would ache when I stooped. The action of my kidneys was irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills not only stopped the pain but regulated the kidney action."

The above statement must carry conviction to the mind of every reader. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Meany had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "his style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Headaches are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of dandruff it is a sign that these countless germs are doing their worst.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to use only Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp. It will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Send for leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

PEACE CONFERENCE WILL BE HELD IN ST. LOUIS.

Will be Attended by Men Prominent in World Affairs—Extensive Preparations for the Gathering in Progress.

President Woodrow Wilson has accepted the honorary presidency of the Fourth American Peace Congress. Former President William H. Taft and United States Senator Elihu Root have accepted the honorary vice-presidency. Congressman Richard Bartholdt will be the active president and the active vice-presidents will be William Jennings Bryan, Secretary of State; Theodore E. Burton, United States senator from Ohio; Andrew Carnegie, who donated $11,000,000 to establish an endowment fund for international peace; Champ Clark, speaker of the House of Representatives; John W. Griggs, former United States attorney-general, and Charles Straus, former American ambassador to Turkey.

Frederick W. Lehmann, former United States solicitor general, will be chairman of the Committee on International Law, membership on which has been accepted by Frederick N. Judson, of St. Louis; Prof. George W. Kirchway of Columbia University; New York City; Thomas Raeburn White of Philadelphia; and James Brown Scott, of Washington, D. C. A. Ross Hill, president of the University of Missouri, will serve as chairman of the Educational Committee, the members of which will include P. P. Claxton, of Washington, D. C., Commissioner of Education; E. T. Fairchild, president of the National Educational Association; H. B. Hutchins, president of the University of Michigan; Frank L. McVey, president of the University of North Dakota and S. C. Mitchell, president of the University of South Carolina.

The General Committee includes in its membership many of the foremost men and women of the United States among them James Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore; William Renwick Riddell, of Toronto, justice of the appellate division of the Supreme Court of Ontario; Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, of Austin, Tex., president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs and Mrs. Charles Hennrich, of Chicago, former president of that federation; S. P. Brooks, president of Baylor University, Waco, Tex.; Deans Charles R. Brown and Henry Wade Rogers, of Yale University; and C. H. Spooner, president of Norwich University.

Manley O. Hudson, secretary of the Missouri Peace Congress, who is a professor at the University of Missouri, is chairman of the Program Committee, the membership of which includes Mrs. Philip North Moore, of St. Louis, former president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Preparations for the congress are being made by the Executive Committee, the chairman of which is James E. Smith, of St. Louis, former president of the Business Men's League, the city's foremost commercial organization. Assisting Mr. Smith in the organization work is the executive secretary of the congress, Walter B. Stevens, who was the secretary of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

Acceptances of official posts at the peace congress are arriving from all sections of the United States and Canada. Most if not all the other countries of the Western Hemisphere will be represented.

The peace movement, while supported earnestly by university presidents and professors and other educators, by churches and by nearly one hundred peace organizations, also has the active encouragement of business men of virtually every class. These business men see in all its fullness the folly of war. They have weighed the figures compiled by Arthur Deerin Call, of Washington, D. C., executive secretary of the American Peace Society, showing that the world spend annually for war and war equipment two billion dollars—enough to more than pay for five Panama canals.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The statement of Alton earnings for the second week of March, issued yesterday, shows a decline over the same week a year ago. In the second week the road earned $264,561, which is $28,363 less than in the same week of 1912. Since July 1, the beginning of the fiscal year, the road has earned $11,006,566 which is an increase of $309,391 over the same period in the preceding fiscal year. While the showing in March is not so favorable as that in January, it is not quite up to the loss of February. It will be recalled that freight traffic was above the normal in March a year ago, due to the action of the big consumers in storing coal. The business for the present month is about up to that of former years and the falling off is not giving the management any concern.

Further extension of railroad operation in the west by electricity generated from mountain water power is indicated in plans made public by one of the Canadian roads. Water power for electrification will be secured by the Canadian Northern railway from Vancouver to Edmonton in such large units that ultimately it is expected the Canadian Northern power companies will have current to offer in the United States. There will be power to electrify the main line through the Rockies from Yellow Head pass to New Westminster, as rights are now being secured at various points to make this certain. One of the latest of the power projects on the Canadian Northern is just east of Hope, B. C., where the Nicola river falls into the Coquahalla. There it is planned to erect two dams across the valley, and install a hydroelectric plant capable of developing 30,000 horse-power.

PROBATE COURT.

Estate of Alvin Landis, deceased. Motion for discharge allowed.

Allen Sturdy of Lynnville was in the city yesterday on business.

CHAPIN.

Dr. Royal J. Dye, a returned missionary from Bolenge, Africa, will talk to the people at the Christian church at 10:45 Sunday morning, March 30.

The "Anti-Kant club" held their regular semi-monthly social at the home of Prof. O. W. Gould Monday evening. A goodly number were present despite the inclement weather.

The Bible school of the Christian church gave a very pleasing program Sunday evening to a large and appreciative audience. A treat will be taken, which will be sent to the Old People's home in Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blair and Mr. and Mrs. W. Woodward were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodward Sunday last.

Mrs. Al Duckett of Jacksonville visited friends and relatives in Chapin Sunday and attended service at the Christian church in the morning.

Mrs. W. Anderson and Miss Myra were shopping in Jacksonville Saturday.

Mr. W. S. Brownlow and Miss Hattie Bobbitt went to Beardstown Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. Wm. Bethard, who was drowned while hunting. The family have the sincere sympathy of all.

Do not fail to hear Dr. Dye at the Christian church next Sunday. If you miss it, you will miss it.

Mrs. Lamar Hallowell of Chicago is visiting her former home in Chapin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blair have moved into the home they have purchased of Lee Brownlow.

Mrs. C. P. Duckett was taken to Dr. Day's sanitarium last Saturday for treatment for severe burns, which she received three months ago while filling an acetylene light plant at her home in Chapin.

PLEASANT GROVE.

Archie Stansfield came out from Jacksonville to spend Saturday and Sunday with his schoolmate, Earl Sooy.

Mrs. Warren Fanning called on Mrs. Annie Still Saturday afternoon. Grace Jennings spent from Friday evening till Sunday with her parents.

Lonnie Bacon and wife are entertaining guests this week from Beardstown.

George Sooy, Lonnie Bacon, Lorton Tucker were dragging the roads last week.

Helen Dobson visited in Murrayville from Saturday until Monday with her aunt, Beulah Ketter.

The Raleigh Medicine man was in the neighborhood, stopping over night with G. W. Dobson.

J. W. Fanning spent Wednesday on the farm occupied by his son, Warren.

Robert Jennings of Litchfield, Montgomery county, came Friday for a visit with his uncle, Monroe Jennings, and family, returning home Monday morning.

James Jennings joined Monroe Jennings and family in entertaining their nephew, Robert Jennings.

A family by the name of Sparks have moved on the Gougherty farm vacated by Arthur Clayton.

YATESVILLE.

Well, the old saying, rain on Easter, rain for seven Sundays, it sure rained on Easter this year.

Dick Berry of Jacksonville spent Saturday night with his sister, Mrs. D. N. Harris, and returned home Sunday morning.

Amos Wood and family visited with Mrs. Steven Wood Sunday.

Verna McDaniel and wife and son, Ctdl, of Peoria visited with his parents, Isaac McDaniel, of Prentice.

Billy Latham visited over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Latham. He resides in Bloomington.

Mrs. Joe Eldridge spent Saturday and Sunday with her mother in Philadelphia.

CONCORD.

Miss Johnson from near Chapin was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Yeck last Thursday at their pleasant suburban home, where their daughters, Mesdames George Johnson and Louis Hess and families were also entertained.

Misses Mary and Hilda Ator of Jacksonville visited over Sunday with relatives here and also contributed some excellent instrumental music at the M. P. church for their Easter program Sunday morning.

Mrs. Eliza Roberts returned Saturday from a pleasant visit with her daughters, Mesdames Kathryn Engle-Engelhart and Anna Greer of Davenport, Iowa.

Charles Rexroat and family are again residents of Concord.

James A. Smith was a Jacksonville business caller Saturday.

Clara Yeck and little daughters, Ruth and Dorothy, of Brighton visited his father, mother, brothers and other relatives here Easter and were warmly welcomed by all, as he has hosts of friends who were pleased to hear he is well located and hope his expectations will be more than realized.

Mrs. Rose Martin of Jacksonville returned to her home there, after several days' visit with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hamm and children of Astoria are visiting Mrs. Hamm's mother, Mrs. Wm. Diggins, and family.

Miss Maude Thorndike of Jacksonville and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crouse of Concord were also guests at the same home Sunday, where all were accorded a royal welcome.

Mrs. Harvey Haley was shopping in Jacksonville recently.

The Ladies' Aid of the Christian church held their annual bazar and chicken pie supper Saturday evening in Charles Bayless' store, to the delectation of all present.

Rev. Mr. Housman, pastor of the M. E. church, is quite indisposed and is confined to his bed with symptoms of appendicitis. All wish for his and his estimable family a speedy recovery.

The W. F. M. S. of the M. E. church held their annual thank offering Sunday evening, but the weather conditions were decidedly unfavorable, so made against the usual good program rendered.

Mrs. Samuel Frazier of Rock Bridge spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Finch.

Word comes from Measrs. William Cooper and nephew, Edgar Cooper, and John Behler, who are at Hot Springs, Ark., for their health, that they are much pleased with the treatment. We understand Joseph Dadds is there also.

From present indications there is no prospect of a drouth very soon, but feel we should not complain, as so many places have been devastated by such terrible storms.

Mr. and Mrs. John Yeck came near having a serious accident while returning from visiting their daughter, Mrs. Louis Yeck. Just this side of Thomas Murphy's residence the land slid from under one of the horse's sled into the gully, throwing the horse and nearly causing the vehicle to overturn.

Keeping the Body in Repair

Nature intended that the body should do its own repairing—and it would do so were it not for the fact that most of us live other than a natural life.

Nature didn't intend that we should wear corsets, tight collars or shoes, nor live in badly ventilated and draughty houses, nor eat and drink some of the things that we do, nor ride in street cars when we should walk.

The consequence is that the body when it gets out of order must look for outside help to make the necessary repairs.

For weak stomachs and the indigestion or dyspepsia resulting, and the multitude of diseases following therefrom, no medicine can be more adaptable as a curative agent than DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

BASEBALL NOTES.

With Hendrix, Byrne and Carey signed up the Pittsburgh Pirates have all of their men in line and ready for the bell.
It looks as if the Cleveland Naps have snared a couple of real ball players in Pitcher Culp and Third Baseman Bates.
About 1,500 persons witnessed the first game of the series between the Boston Red Sox and Pittsburgh Pirates at Hot Springs, Ark.
Manager "Mitt" Brann of the Montreal team has been visiting the big league training camps in the south looking for players.
Tim Flood, the old Brooklyn second baseman, has been signed to manage the Winnipeg team in the new Northern league.
Hans Lobert, whose leg, fractured last summer, is sore again, is one of the busiest men at the Phillies' training camp.
Manager Huggins of the Cardinals is trying to put one deal on Charlie O'Leary, the old Detroit shortstop, now with Indianapolis.
Owner James E. Gaffney of the Boston Nationals will visit the training camps in the south in an effort to land some promising players for his Braves.
Baldemero Acosta, the young Cuban with the Washington team, is being rated as a mixture of Willie Keeler and Jesse Burkett when it comes to bunting.
Zeke Wrigley, the American association veteran, has purchased the Lima franchise in the Ohio State league. He managed the Beans, as his team is known, last year.
The score card at the San Fran-

Pimples Source of Great Danger

May be Means of Absorbing Disease Germs in Most Unexpected Manner.

Bid Farewell to All Blood and Skin Diseases.

The research laboratory of The Swift Specific Co. has collected a vast amount of information regarding the spread of blood diseases. In thousands of instances the most virulent types have been the result of coming in contact with disease germs in public places, and the apparently insignificant pimple has been the cause. It spreads with astonishing rapidity, often infecting the entire system in a few days.

It is fortunate, however, that there is a remedy to cope quickly and thoroughly with such a condition, and thanks to the energy of its producers the famous S. S. S. may now be had at almost any drug store in the civilized world.

This preparation stands alone among specific remedies as a blood purifier. It is somewhat revolutionary in its composition, since it accomplishes all that was ever claimed for mercury, iodides, arsenic and other destructive mineral drugs, and yet it is absolutely a purely vegetable product. There are more cases of articular rheumatism, locomotor ataxia, paresis, neuritis and similar diseases resultant from the use of minerals than from disease germs direct. These facts are brought out in a highly interesting book compiled by the medical department of The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is mailed free, together with a special letter of advice to all who are struggling with a blood disease.

Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. to-day of your druggist. It will surprise you with its wonderful action in the blood.

COMPLICATION OF WOMAN'S ILLS

Yields to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Athens, Texas.—"I had a complication of diseases, some of them of long standing. I wrote to you for advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and some other things that you suggested. I must confess that I am much better in every way and have been relieved of some of the worst troubles. My neighbors say I look younger now than I did fifteen years ago."—Mrs. SARAH R. WHITLEY, Athens, Texas, R. F. D. No. 3. Box 92.

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or received so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In nearly every community you will find women who have been restored to health by this famous medicine. Almost every woman you meet knows of the great good it has been doing among suffering women for the past 30 years.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, many of them state that it has saved them from surgical operations.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

TELLS ABOUT SENSATIONS WHEN GREAT STORM RAGED IN OMAHA

Charles Bradish Gives Particulars of Disaster in Letter to His Brother Here.

Mention was made yesterday that W. C. Bradish had received a telegram from his brother, Charles Bradish who is proprietor of a large drug store there giving the good news that the members of the family were not injured in the great storm of Sunday night. Yesterday Mr. Bradish received a letter giving some first hand information about the storm and the damage wrought. At the time the worst damage was done the writer was in his store and his graphic description will be read with interest. An extract from the letter follows:

Dear Folks:

We are all well and safe. Omaha was visited by one of the worst cyclones in history last evening, Sunday 6 p. m. The Roland, our home was not in the path of the storm. Passed through the city, southwest and northeast, and made a pretty clean sweep about a block and a half wide. Missed our home about four blocks.

The store was right in line but escaped O. K. Buildings on both sides were wrecked within one-half block. Our former residence within a block of the store was wrecked. None of our friends were hurt.

After looking over the ruins only a small portion (in this location) of which I have seen it seems marvelous that thousands were not killed. This is said to be worse than the St. Louis one, 1896.

About thirty people came in our store to keep out of the rain that preceded the storm, when a man came running in shouting go to the cellar quick. I locked the rear door and safe and looked out the front door just in time to see a bedstead and sundry household articles passing over about a block high. By the time I had locked the door the storm hit. I will never forget the weird moaning and terrible roar of wreckage, etc. Glass in the rear door windows came in with a crash and expected any minute to see the big plate glass front window go out and show cases etc. follow, but we were lucky and only suffered slight damage.

Then followed a fierce electrical storm and deluge of rain for thirty minutes. I did not realize the severity of the storm for sometime until I went out doors, looked up and down the street to see large houses reduced to kindling, sidewalks and streets filled with brick, telephone poles and wreckage of all descriptions and fires starting in various directions. The business section was not touched at all and people down town and in unmolested sections did not know for several hours of the disaster as all telephones, street cars and electric light service went out completely with the storm. The street car service is fairly good today and telephone and electric lights are being repaired.

Soon as I could get away after the worst had passed, I started for home to see condition of things. Total darkness and streets filled with rubbish and a drenching rain. After falling down a couple times, reached home all right to find all well, just pretty badly scared and in darkness. It was some relief I assure you.

The rain storm ceased about 10 p. m. and then came the work to see what was left and who was missing. I walked through wrecked section in a radius of a few blocks from store. It certainly was a weird dreadful sight. Trees were uprooted, houses wrecked and in streets, clothing, bedding hanging in trees and on wires, furniture smashed and scattered and the only light was from the street gas lamps that had been twisted off and were burning in a big red smoke torch flame.

Today, storm sections are all under martial law, the soldiers from Ft. Omaha doing picket duty. But we are all well and getting down to earth again.

LOOK TO WILSON FOR U. S. BANKS ABROAD.

President's Chinese Policy Taken to Favor Foreign Branch System.

Governmental officials and others who have devoted themselves to the expansion of American trade abroad are awaiting with great interest the details of President Wilson's plan for legislation which shall give American exporters and contractors the banking facilities they need to put them on a level with their foreign competitors. Those who long have been studying this question believe that President Wilson's promise to this effect, contained in his statement regarding Chinese policy, can mean but one thing, and that is the amendment of the national banking laws to permit the establishment of branches of American banks in foreign countries. This is the reform which every American exporter, and their customers abroad as well, have long been asking for. Such legislation was repeatedly recommended by Secretary Knox and President Taft.

The export trade of the United States now amounts to more than $1,000,000,000. Practically all of this enormous trade is financed through foreign banking houses. In the absence of any American banks abroad, American exporters and their customers have no recourse except to do business through the banks of other nationalities.

South American Situation.

In South America, the field in which the American export trade is now enjoying the greatest increase, the lack of American banks is felt keenly. The rivals of the Americans all finance their South American business through branches of British, German and French banks. Through these banks, likewise, must pass all the commercial paper of the American trying to sell goods in South America. The competitors of Americans have been found to be without scruple in using to their own advantage all the confidential information about Americans' business transactions which necessarily pass through the foreign banks. Many an American has found these leaks to be disastrous to his business ventures in South America.

Mrs. S. S. S. Van Buren St., Kingston N. Y., (full name furnished on application), had such decided benefit from using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound that she shares her good fortune with others. She writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brought my voice back to me during a severe case of bronchitis and laryngitis. Oh, how many people I have recommended it to." City Drug Store—J. A. Obermeyer.

GRACE CHAPEL FRANKLIN.

On account of bad roads and overflow of water our items will be somewhat delayed, Joseph Whittaker, our mail carrier, being unable to reach us.

Some twenty-five members, all young people, of Grace Chapel Sunday school, planned quite a surprise on Mr. Russell Ogle last Saturday evening in the way of an egg social. Bringing about seven dozen eggs with them the refreshments consisted of bread, butter, eggs and hot coffee, eggs being cooked in several different ways. All departed at late hour, Russell being very thankful for the surprise. Come again Sunday school workers.

The committee on Easter program at Grace Chapel was rendered with much difficulty on account of bad roads and weather, so many numbers were absent. With Miss Alma J. Ogle, pianist, the program was as follows:

Opening song, Christ Our King—By School.

Prayer—Melvin Smith.

Recitation, The Message—Dorothy Brainer.

Recitation, Her Easter Blessing—Lynn Allen.

Duet (with two part chorus)—Edna Ogle, soprano; Alma Ogle, alto; Lloyd Ogle, tenor.

Recitation—Everette Mason.

Exercise, Three Easter Flowers—Dale and Roy Brainer, Owen Smith.

Recitation, Violets—Letha Mason.

Song, Easter Joy—Ralph and Paul Ogle.

Recitation, Easter By and By—Owen Smith.

Exercise, Go Ye Into All the World—Edna Ogle, Lorane Allen, Marie Mason.

Solo, Sing For Easter Day—Lynn Allen.

Recitation, What I Found in Sister's Shopping Bag—Donald Houston.

Recitation, Counting Easter Eggs—Clyde Smith.

Duet, Springtime—Mrs. Harry Brainer, Miss Marie Loughery.

Exercise, Little Easter Eggs—Paul Ogle, Everette Mason, Ralph Ogle, Owen Smith.

Song, Don't You Know Its Easter?—Marie Mason, Lorene Allen, Edna Ogle.

Recitation—Dale Brainer (ap- plause).

Double quartet, All Glory to Our King—By four young ladies and four young men. (Applause.)

Remarks—By superintendent.

Announcements.

Closing song—Hail, All Hail—By Sunday school.

Miss Golden Berryman of the I. W. C. spent the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Berryman.

Miss Lucile Olinger, an I. W. C. student, is kept at home this week by an attack of the mumps.

Miss Armeada Brown of Jacksonville spent Sunday with Franklin friends.

Jake Boyer's barn was struck by lightning Monday evening. Two horses, many farming implements and some grain were burned.

Misses Grace Hill, Ethel Bruner, Mary Wright, Maud Hulse, Ima Berryman and Elgin Olinger and Willie Berryman attended the Madame Schumann-Heink concert Tuesday evening.

Little Ethel Johnson is on the sick list.

The Easter program given by the Christian church Sunday evening was well attended.

Dale Chambers of Watertown returned to his home yesterday, having been called here by the death of his grandfather, J. Meredith.

Good Bye Dandruff

A Clean Scalp For Everyone Who Wants It.

Parisian Sage will kill all dandruff germs and banish dandruff in two weeks or nothing to pay. It will stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks; or money back. It will stimulate the clogged up hair roots, will cause the hair to grow, will prevent the hair from turning gray, and the danger of becoming bald will vanish.

Parisian Sage is a daintily perfumed hair tonic that is not sticky or greasy. Parisian Sage is sold by druggists everywhere, and by Cover & Shreve on the money back plan. Try a 50 cent bottle today and learn for yourself what a delightful tonic it is. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. The Gironx Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y., are the American makers.

FOUR CANDIDATES ARE INITIATED BY ORDER OF ELKS

Organization Has Had Prosperous Year—New Officers Will be Installed at Next Meeting—Occupation of Various Members.

At a meeting of the B. P. O. Elks held Wednesday evening, the following candidates were initiated into the order: E. S. Greenleaf, John Rawlings, Lloyd Brown and E. M. Henderson. Following the work a five course banquet was served. William Heintz donated some beautiful flowers consisting of daffodils, roses, tulips and ferns for the table decorations, and each member had a rose.

The Elks have pledged $10,000 toward their new home and it is expected that the remainder, $15,000, will be raised by next fall, thus completing the necessary fund. At the next meeting the new officers will be inducted into office with the regular ceremonies of the lodge, followed by a feast. Dr. Allen King has been the exalted ruler during the past year and the lodge under his administration has experienced a splendid growth. More members were taken into the order last year than in any twelve months previous to its inception.

The lodge now numbers upward of 350 members and the standard of the men composing the organization can be gleaned from the following list of occupations of members in the Jacksonville lodge. There are eight-seventeen automobiles also owned by members:

ANNUAL BALL A SUCCESS.

Cigar Makers and Friends Has Enjoyable Time at Armory Hall.

The 29th annual ball of the Cigar Makers union was held Wednesday night in Armory hall and was a most successful event. When the grand march began there were eighty couples in line and the scene was quite brilliant. Mr. and Mrs. John Casey led the march and they were followed by Miss Mabel Berry and Myrl Large. There were more than two hundred dancers during the evening and the program which lasted until one o'clock was one which all enjoyed. Excellent music was furnished by the Powers & Johnson orchestra. Walter N. Smith is the president of the Cigar Makers union and it was he who appointed John Thompson as floor manager and the following general committee of arrangements. Patrick Butler, Adam Erghott Jr., John Casey, Chris Herberg and Francis McGinnis. The hall had been tastefully decorated with flags and with pennants referring to union made cigars and altogether the arrangements were such as to make the occasion one wholly of pleasure. Adam Erghott, Sr., was the door keeper. President Smith said that in planning for the dance it was determined not to canvass merchants for the selling of tickets and the union decided against having a program made up largely of advertisements secured from merchants.

Mrs. Melissa Paul has returned from a three months visit in Iowa.

Mrs. Isaac Powers of Terre Haute, Ind., arrived in the city Monday evening and is a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. George E. Matthews, 215 Webster avenue.

MATRIMONIAL

Lancaster-Klothe.

Formal announcement has been made of the approaching marriage of Louis Earl Lancaster, son of Capt. and Mrs. R. Lancaster of Virginia, to Miss Louise Klothe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Klothe of Indianapolis, Ind., where the ceremony will be said at the home of the bride's parents in early May. The young people will make their home in that city, where the groom is employed as manager of the Indianapolis Library Bureau company. Mr. Lancaster has relatives in this city and is a young man of splendid business ability.

Ausmus-Beekman.

The marriage of Fred I. Ausmus and Miss Mary Beekman, both of the Pisgah neighborhood, was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the residence of Frank Bubb, 334 East State street, Rev. G. W. Flagg, pastor of Centenary M. E. church officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Beekman, one of the best known families of Morgan county. She received her musical education at the Woman's college and possesses a wide circle of friends. The groom is the son of Isaac Ausmus of the Pisgah neighborhood. He expects to conduct a farm for William Masters in the Meredosia neighborhood.

Renwick-Barr.

A springtime wedding on a wintry day was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Barr, 1209 West State street, and by the service their daughter, Miss Helen Barr, became the bride of Mr. Foster Rood Renwick. The company of sixty included only relatives and intimate friends. Rev. L. H. Davis, pastor of Westminster church, was the clergyman and a beautiful ring service was used. As the guests came they were received most cordially by Mr. and Mrs. Barr, Mrs. C. A. Renwick, Miss Barr and Mr. Renwick. At 5 o'clock Miss Barr and Mr. Renwick stood before a bank of flowers in the bay window of the living room and Rev. Mr. Davis led in the solemn ceremony. The bride's handsome gown was of white embroidered net and she wore white sweet peas. The guests gave expression to their good wishes for the young people and a little later the wedding supper was served.

When the bride's cake was cut Miss Marian Taylor drew the ring. Miss Margaret Fisher the dime and Miss Laura Rood the needle.

The various rooms of the home were decorated in a most artistic way in green and white colors, the effects sought secured with Easter lilies, sweet peas, ferns and spiliat. Nothing could be daintier than colorings of such flowers and foliage and while the decorations accorded with the other splendid wedding appointments they were distinctly beautiful. This early spring bride had her heart fixed on a wedding of sweet simplicity and solemnity, just among relatives and close friends, and such it was.

Mrs. Renwick is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barr, is a young woman of especial graces and will certainly preside charmingly in the home soon to be established at 36 Spruce Place, Minneapolis. Mr. Renwick's mother is a well known resident of Grand Rapids, Mich., and that was formerly his home, but for a number of years he has been located at Minneapolis and is associated with the George A. Fuller contracting firm. The bride and groom left over the Wabash Wednesday evening for a brief wedding journey in the east.

Among the guests were Mrs. C. A. Renwick, Miss Margaret Fisher, Miss Julia Renwick, Miss Laura Rood, Minneapolis; E. A. Renwick, Chicago; John Fisher, Minneapolis; Miss Ethel Moseley and W. K. Barr, Chicago; Mrs. N. R. Jerald, Springfield.

MORTUARY

The funeral services of Thomas Harry Tivnen were conducted from the residence of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tivnen, 829 West Lafayette avenue, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, in charge of Rev. F. A. McCarty. Music was furnished by Mrs. E. O. Mayer, Miss Marguerite Mayer, J. Philip Read and Rev. F. A. McCarty. The flowers were cared for by Misses Florence Smith, Margaret and Agnes Tivnen. Interment was made in Jacksonville cemetery.

Fanning.

Mrs. Robert Fanning, aged 70 years, died Sunday at her home in Nortonville and was buried Tuesday afternoon. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Kelly and Mrs. M. Kelly of Nortonville and one son, Allie Fanning, all of Nortonville.

Wallace.

James Wallace died Tuesday evening at 4:30 o'clock at Jacksonville State hospital, at the age of 78 years. The remains were taken to Williamson & Cody's undertaking parlors and yesterday sent to his former home in Litchfield.

Berry.

Funeral services of Mrs. Elizabeth Berry were held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist church at Merritt in charge of Rev. Scott Peak assisted by Rev. V. P. Mitchell. The services were attended by a large gathering of relatives and friends. Music was furnished by Mrs. Obermeyer, Mrs. Al Morris, Norman Campbell and Al Morris and the flowers which were many and beautiful were cared for by Mrs. Norma Cassel and Mrs. Newton Peters.

Interment was made in the Gilliam cemetery and the bearers were: Russel Berry, Worth Berry, Carl Berry, Lee Berry, Jerald Carpenter and Roy Clark.

Contest in Declamation and Debate Will Be Held Friday Evening.

A joint debate and declamatory contest of Millikin university and Whipple academy will be held in the Jones memorial building Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The question for debate is Resolved, That the United States should continue the policy of protection to American industries. Whipple will have the affirmative side upheld by Clay Apple and Henry Hinton. Millikin representatives are Clarence Hammet and Bliss Irwin.

The girls will contest for the honors in the declamation contest. For Whipple Miss Helen McDonald will give "Who's Afraid," and Miss Vincent Cromwell "Anne of Green Gables." For Millikin Miss Evalene Atterhwaite will give "The Rising of the Seventy-six," and Miss Pearl Coe, "Bird's Christmas Carol." The judges will be chosen from out of town.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Members of the Monday Card club were entertained Wednesday night by Mrs. George S. Gay, Mrs. Harold C. Gay and Mrs. W. L. Fay at the home of Mrs. Fay, 1243 West State street. Military euche was played and the house and table decorations were in accord with suggestion in that name. Messrs. Hood and Larson catered and the occasion was one of much pleasure. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franz of Springfield were out of town guests.

HAS IMPORTANT POSITION. Byron W. Orr, who was a resident of Jacksonville about thirty years ago and was at that time employed in the Journal office, recently took an important position in the publicity department of the Pittsburgh "Post" and "Sun." Mr. Orr went from Jacksonville to St. Louis, where he was connected with one of the papers and he is now accounted one of the best informed newspaper men of the country.

FIFTEEN INJURED IN WRECK. St. Louis, Mo., March 26.—Wabash passenger train No. 1, carrying Omaha and Kansas City sleepers was wrecked tonight near Normandy, a few miles out of St. Louis. The fireman was killed and it is reported the engineer was fatally hurt, and that several coaches were overturned into a ditch.

Fifteen passengers were injured although it is not known how seriously. The wreck was caused by water loosening the roots of a tree which fell across the track. None of the fifteen injured are expected to die.

The Value of a Guarantee

The words "We Guarantee" our goods are often heedlessly spoken but not so at this store. We guarantee each purchase to be of the quality represented because first of all we are careful in selecting our stocks and for the added reason that if anything we sell is not just as represented we count it a favor to be called upon to make good our guarantee of quality. SELLING GROCERIES WITH A GUARANTEE means simply telling the truth about them and warranting to customers that goods sold will be found just as represented. Our guarantee goes with every purchase and is a protection to you.

YOUNG MAN PARALYZED AS RESULT OF GUN SHOT WOUND

Cleveland Snow Brought to Passavant Hospital From Patterson, Ill.—Shooting Accidental.

Cleveland Snow of Patterson, Ill., was brought to Passavant hospital Wednesday suffering from paralysis, as the result of a gunshot wound he received Monday night. He was shot in the back, between the shoulder blades, by a companion who mistook him for an animal, some brush cutting off the view of the gunner. Although the wound was only from a 22-calibre rifle the ball struck in such a manner as to paralyze the entire portion of the body from the shoulders down. An X-ray picture was made last night and the ball located, but not extricated. The young man is 21 years of age and his condition is thought to be quite serious.

PROBABLE APPOINTMENT FOR JUDGE THOMPSON.

According to a story published in the Chicago Record Herald there is a probability that Secretary of State W. J. Bryan will appoint Judge Owen P. Thompson of this city as minister to Brazil. The friendship between the two men is such as to give color to the story. There is the added fact also that Judge Thompson has two daughters in Brazil. The judge has a long record of service for his party, is a man of high character and great ability. It is also said that Secretary Bryan considers the appointment of Judge C. C. Creighton of Springfield to fill the vacancy on the United States district bench in Illinois.

THREE HUNDRED KILLED IN BATTLE

Naco, Mexico, March 26.—With an estimated total of three hundred killed during the day's fighting in the American mining town of Cananea, the three hundred federalists late today prevented the state troops attempt to take their position by assault, more than one thousand state troops were driven back. The Huerta garrison is reported to have lost few men. The slaughter of the attackers was great.

Report Surrender of Federalists.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 26.—A message to the Western Union company from its operator at Naco, Arizona, at 10 o'clock tonight said that the federalists at Cananea had surrendered.

EAGLES INITIATE FOUR.

At the regular meeting of the local Aerie of Eagles held Wednesday night the members sent word to the Worthy Grand President asking that he extend the time for the special rate for new members thirty days longer. The following four candidates were taken in at the meeting: Ralph Stringham, J. E. Rodgers, Frank K. DeFrates and Michael O'Brien.

WILL CARRY EXPRESS MATTER FOR RELIEF FREE OF CHARGE

Chicago, March 26.—Express matter for the relief of Omaha tornado sufferers and flood refugees in Indiana and Ohio will be carried free of charge as long as relief work is necessary, it was announced here today by the presidents of Adams, American, National, United States and Wells-Fargo express companies. Any matter sent by regularly organized relief committees or consigned to municipal authorities will be accepted and forwarded immediately.

"Boil all water and pasteurize all milk used in flood districts," is the main text of a warning bulletin sent out today by the Journal of the American Medical association.

A warning to persons contributing clothing and shoes for the relief of tornado and flood sufferers was issued here tonight by Dr. P. J. Farrell, former surgeon general of the army of the Philippines.

Dr. Farrell cited his experience at the San Francisco disaster where he was in charge of the emergency hospitals.

BIG FOUR SERVICE HALTED.

Champaign, Ill., March 26.—Floods in this vicinity halted service on the Big Four railroad tonight. The bridge over the Wabash river at Covington, Ind., is doomed it was learned tonight. Central Illinois is full of marooned travellers.

Okaw River Levee Breaks.

Vandalia, Ill., March 26.—The Okaw river levee, sixteen miles long broke in four places tonight. Sixty thousand acres are from one to eight feet under water. Water is pouring over the National Road east of Vandalia for a distance of a mile. Eight inches of snow fell to day.

RAILROAD BRIDGE GOES OUT.

Danville, Ill., March 27.—Word was received at midnight from Clinton, Ind., that the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad bridge over the Wabash river there went out at 11 p. m.

This was the bridge that was dynamited a few years ago.

Advices from Covington, Ind., state and the Peoria and Eastern (Big Four) bridge across the Wabash there was still standing at 10 p. m., but great portions of the fills at each end are washing away.

The Old Bedlam.

Bethlehem (pronounced Bedlam), the London lunatic asylum, was originally founded in 1247 as a priory, but is spoken of as a hospital for lunatics in 1472, and when the church was despoiled it was granted to the city of London as such an asylum. At one time the wretched inmates were exhibited to the public like so many wild beasts, as Pepys notes in his diary and Hogarth shows in one of his sketches. Patients that were harmless or half cured were given badges and released to beg on the streets. Edgar in "King Lear" impersonates one of these wandering Tom-o'-Bedlams.

Man's Dual Nature.

The professional mind for all its acuteness is liable to occasional lapses, like less highly trained intellects. One amusing case in point is reported in the Philadelphia Public Ledger:

A certain professor was struggling to make the point that both parents have an equal influence upon a child.

"For," he continued gravely, "a man is as much the son of his father as he is the daughter of his mother."

Law and Poetry.

A lawyer can put 1,000 words together and make them worth $1,000. That's legal ability.

A poet can put 1,000 words together and make them worth fifteen plunks, payable on publication. That's poetry. —Washington Herald.

Corrected.

The Doctor.—But, my dear sir, you must mutilate your food. What were your teeth given you for? The sufferer (shakily)—They weren't given me. I bought 'em.—London Sketch.

A Chinese Oath.

"In China the oath of brotherhood is taken by breaking a cup." "If that worked in this country our cook would be sealed to us for life." —Louisville Courier-Journal.
